Your child can join in the Kids' adventures, solving the many problems faced by Chris, Carrie and their friends.

The makers of Crayola® products believe that activity materials for children should meet the highest quality standards. Those standards were used in selecting the materials for these books. For example, the thick, absorbent paper used in the books was selected for its outstanding whiteness and surface texture. It is a high-quality paper designed for use with Crayola® crayons, Crayola® markers, Crayola® water colors and Crayola® poster paints.

The Pup Runs Away

Chris and Carrie, the Crayola Kids, came to visit their friend Susan. "We're going to a pet store to buy a puppy," said Susan. "It's a present for my birthday."

• Color the picture.

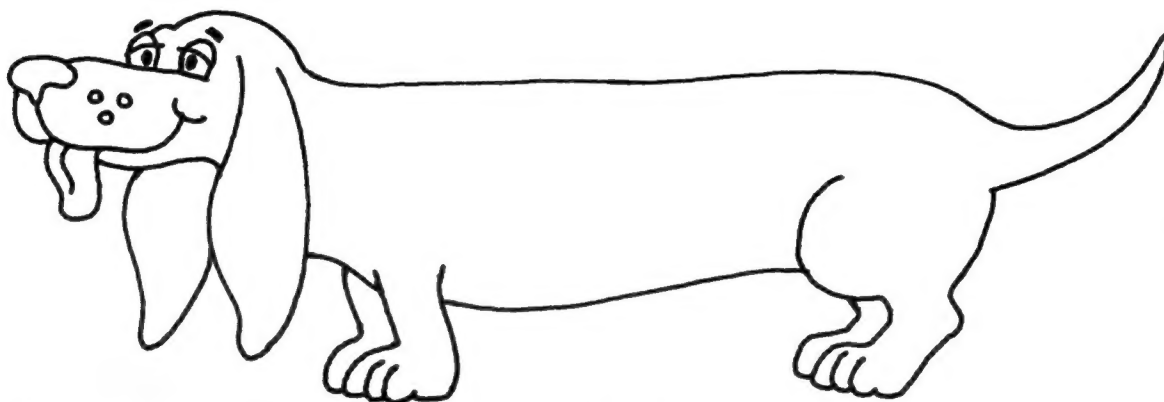

“What kind of puppy?” asked Chris.

“I can’t decide,” said Susan. “I’ve seen so many kinds at the pet store.”

“Here’s the pet shop,” said Carrie.

“And look at all the animals,” said Chris.

“I see the puppy I want,” said Susan.

- Can you see the puppy that Susan wants? Color in the spaces with the following colors

“Now I’ll need some other things for the puppy,” said Susan.

When the Kids and Susan got home they went outside.

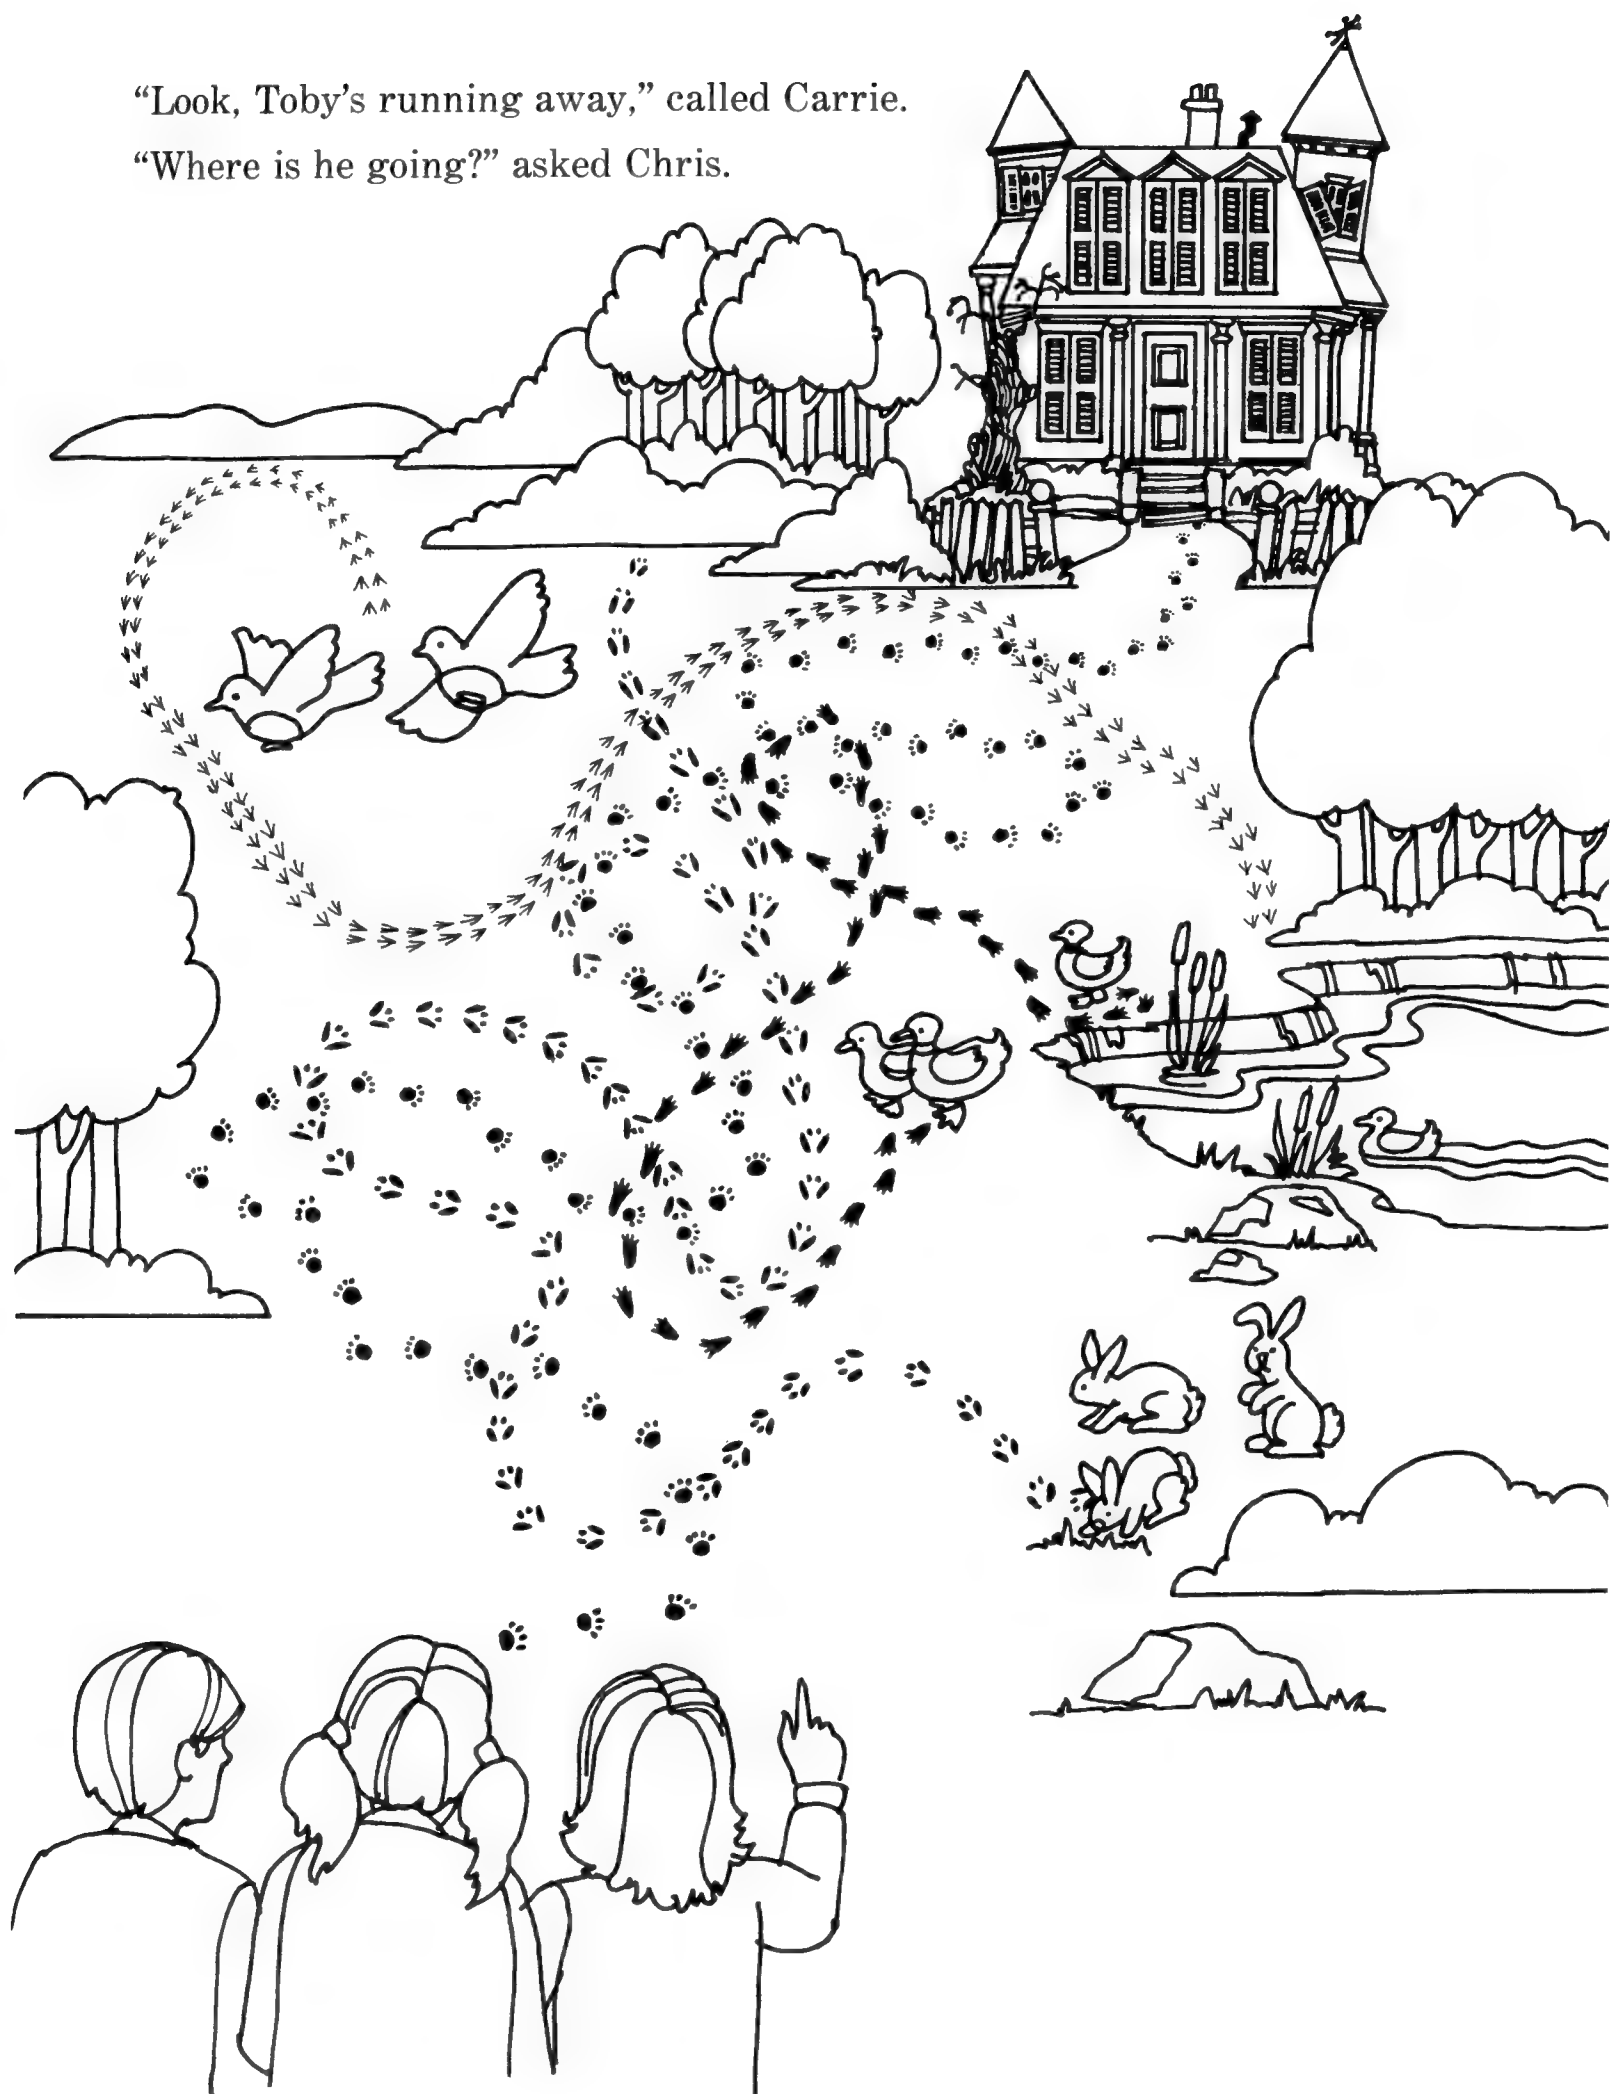

“Let’s play ball with Toby,” said Carrie.

“I’ll throw it,” said Chris. “Here, Toby, go get the ball.”

“Look, Toby’s running away,” called Carrie.

“Where is he going?” asked Chris.

- Can you find where Toby is going? Follow the tracks that look like this. 🐾
What other kind of tracks can you see?

"Toby's going to my great aunt's old house," gasped Susan.

"Does she live there?" asked Chris.

"No," said Susan, "she moved out. She said it was haunted!"

"Let's look in the window to see if Toby's inside," said Carrie.

- Help Chris and Carrie see what is inside the old house.
Remove this page from the book. Color it and then cut the windows on the dotted lines -----. Then look at page 11.

OPEN THE

- Remove this page from the book. Use your Colorubs in the windows. Put in bats, cobwebs, black cats or spiders. Then glue, tape or paperclip this page to the back of page 10 as shown.

• Color the back of the house.

Inside the Mansion

"It's dark and spooky in there," moaned Carrie, "and I can't see Toby."

"Look," called Chris, "here's a note on the door."

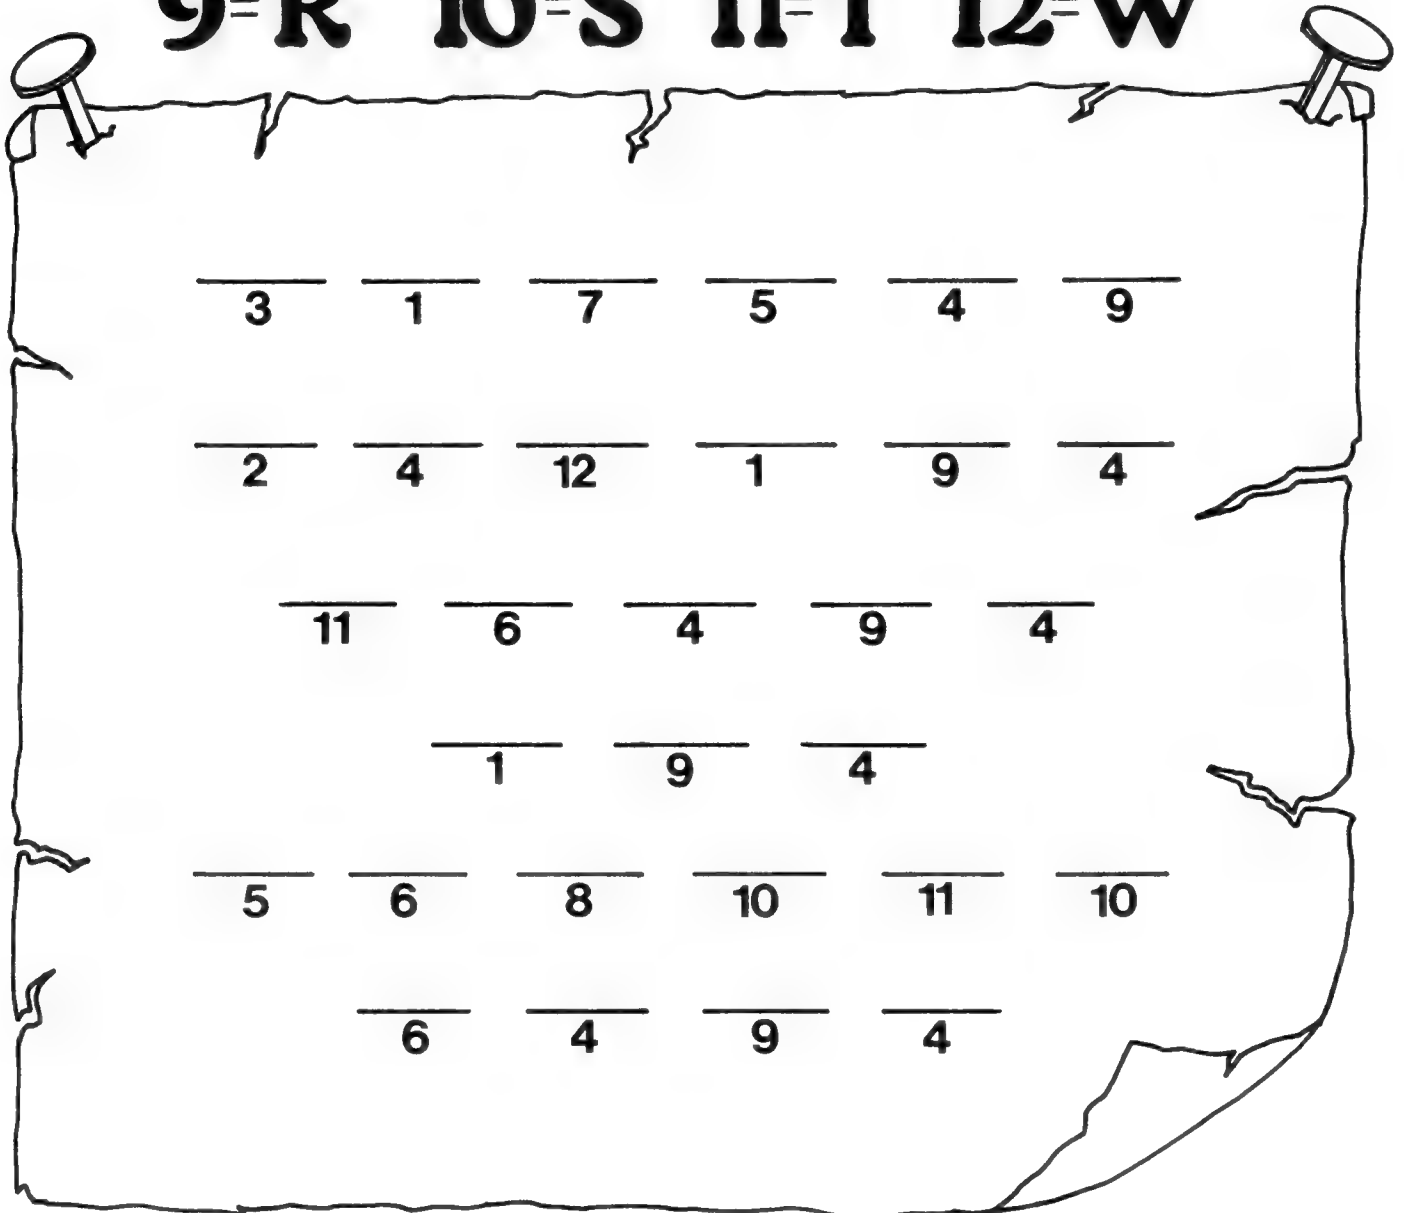

"What does it say?" asked Susan.

1=A 2=B 3=D

4=E 5=G 6=H 7=N 8=O

9=R 10=S 11=T 12=W

- Help Chris read the note on the door. Use the code to read it. Put the correct letter above each number.

Answers on page 48.

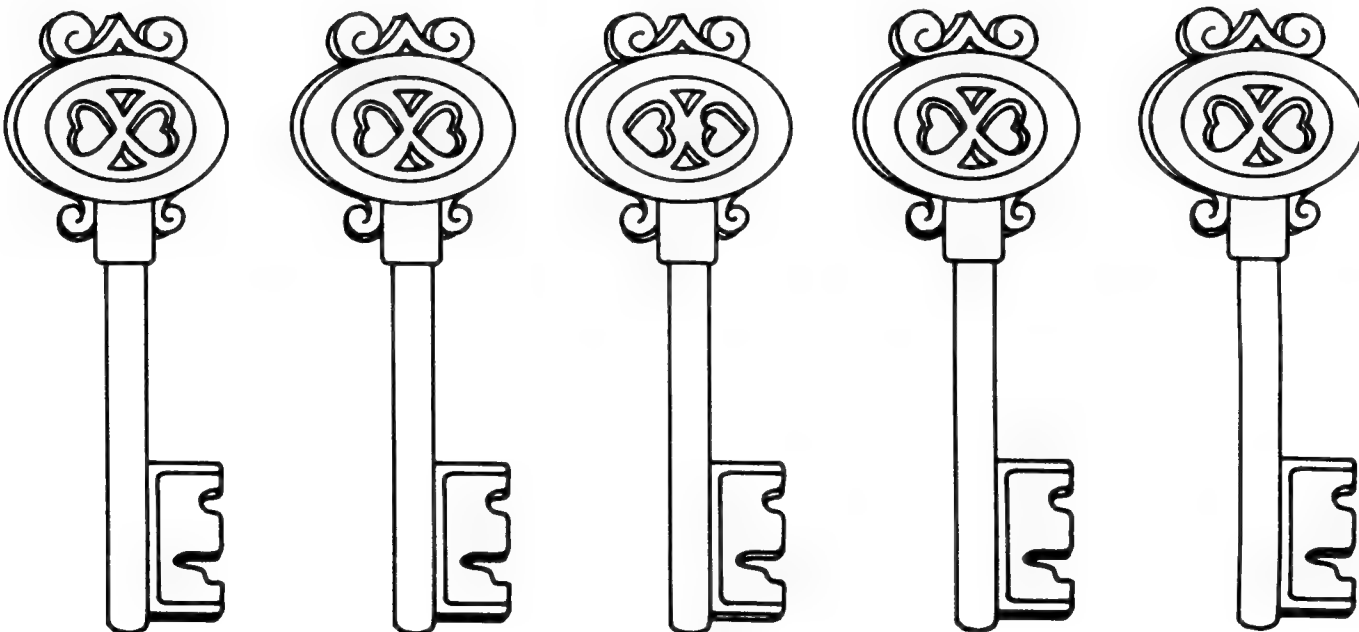

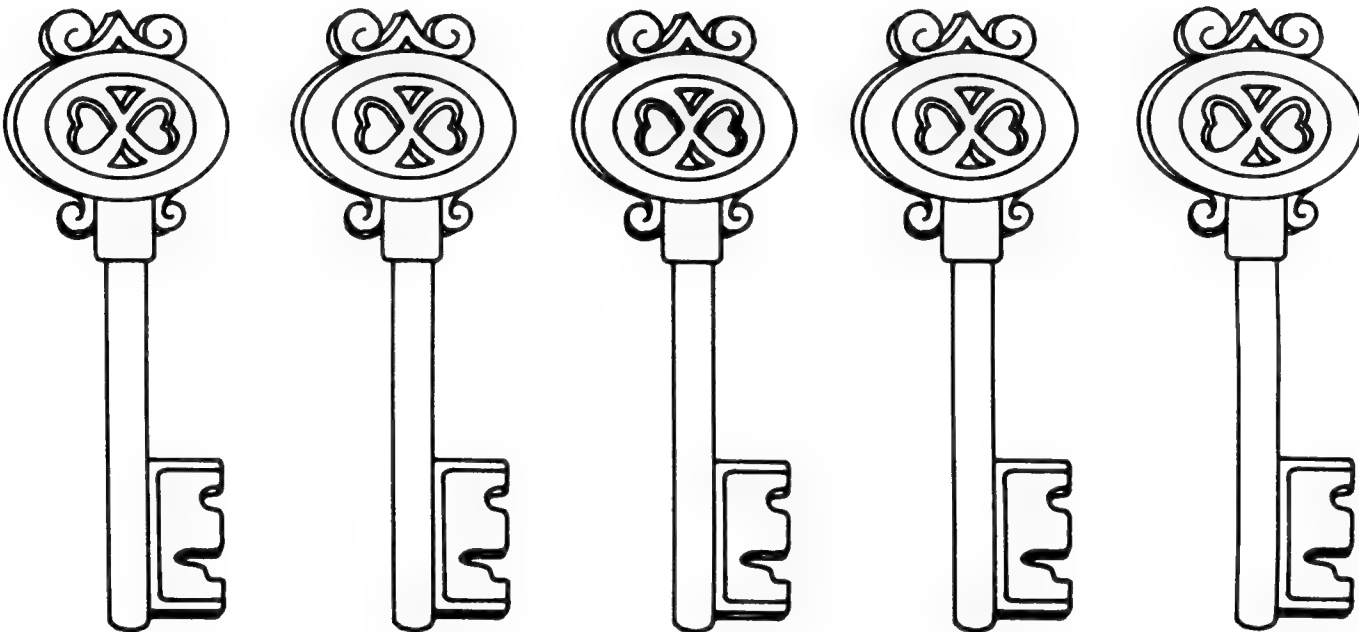

“Did your aunt write that note?” asked Chris.

“No!” said Susan, “but whoever did doesn’t want us to go inside.”

“We’ll have to, if we’re going to find Toby,” said Carrie.

“You’re right,” said Susan, “and I know one of these keys fits the door.”

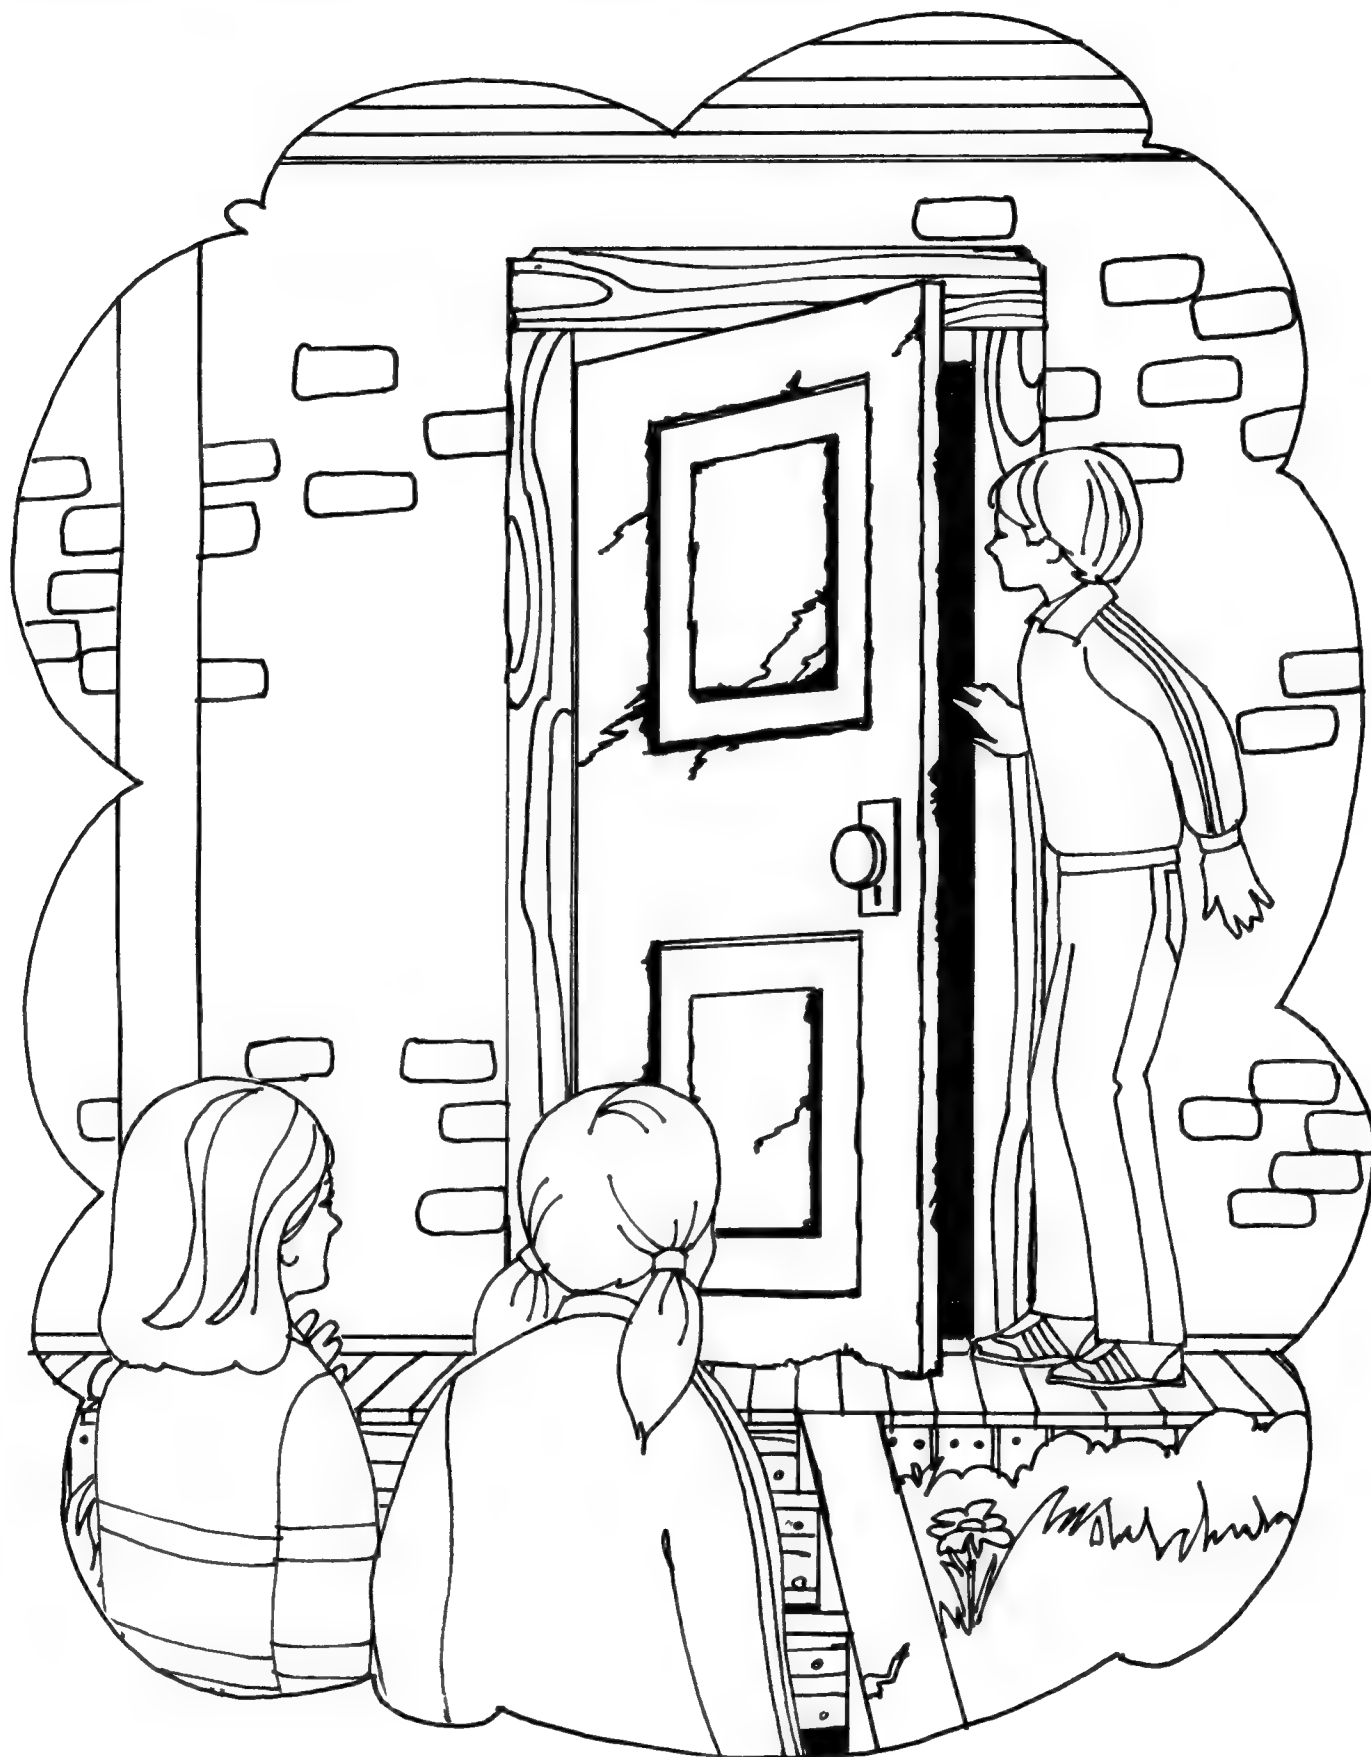

- Find the key that fits Susan’s great aunt’s house. It’s the one that is different from all of the others.

“This key fits,” said Susan. “Let’s go inside and find Toby.”

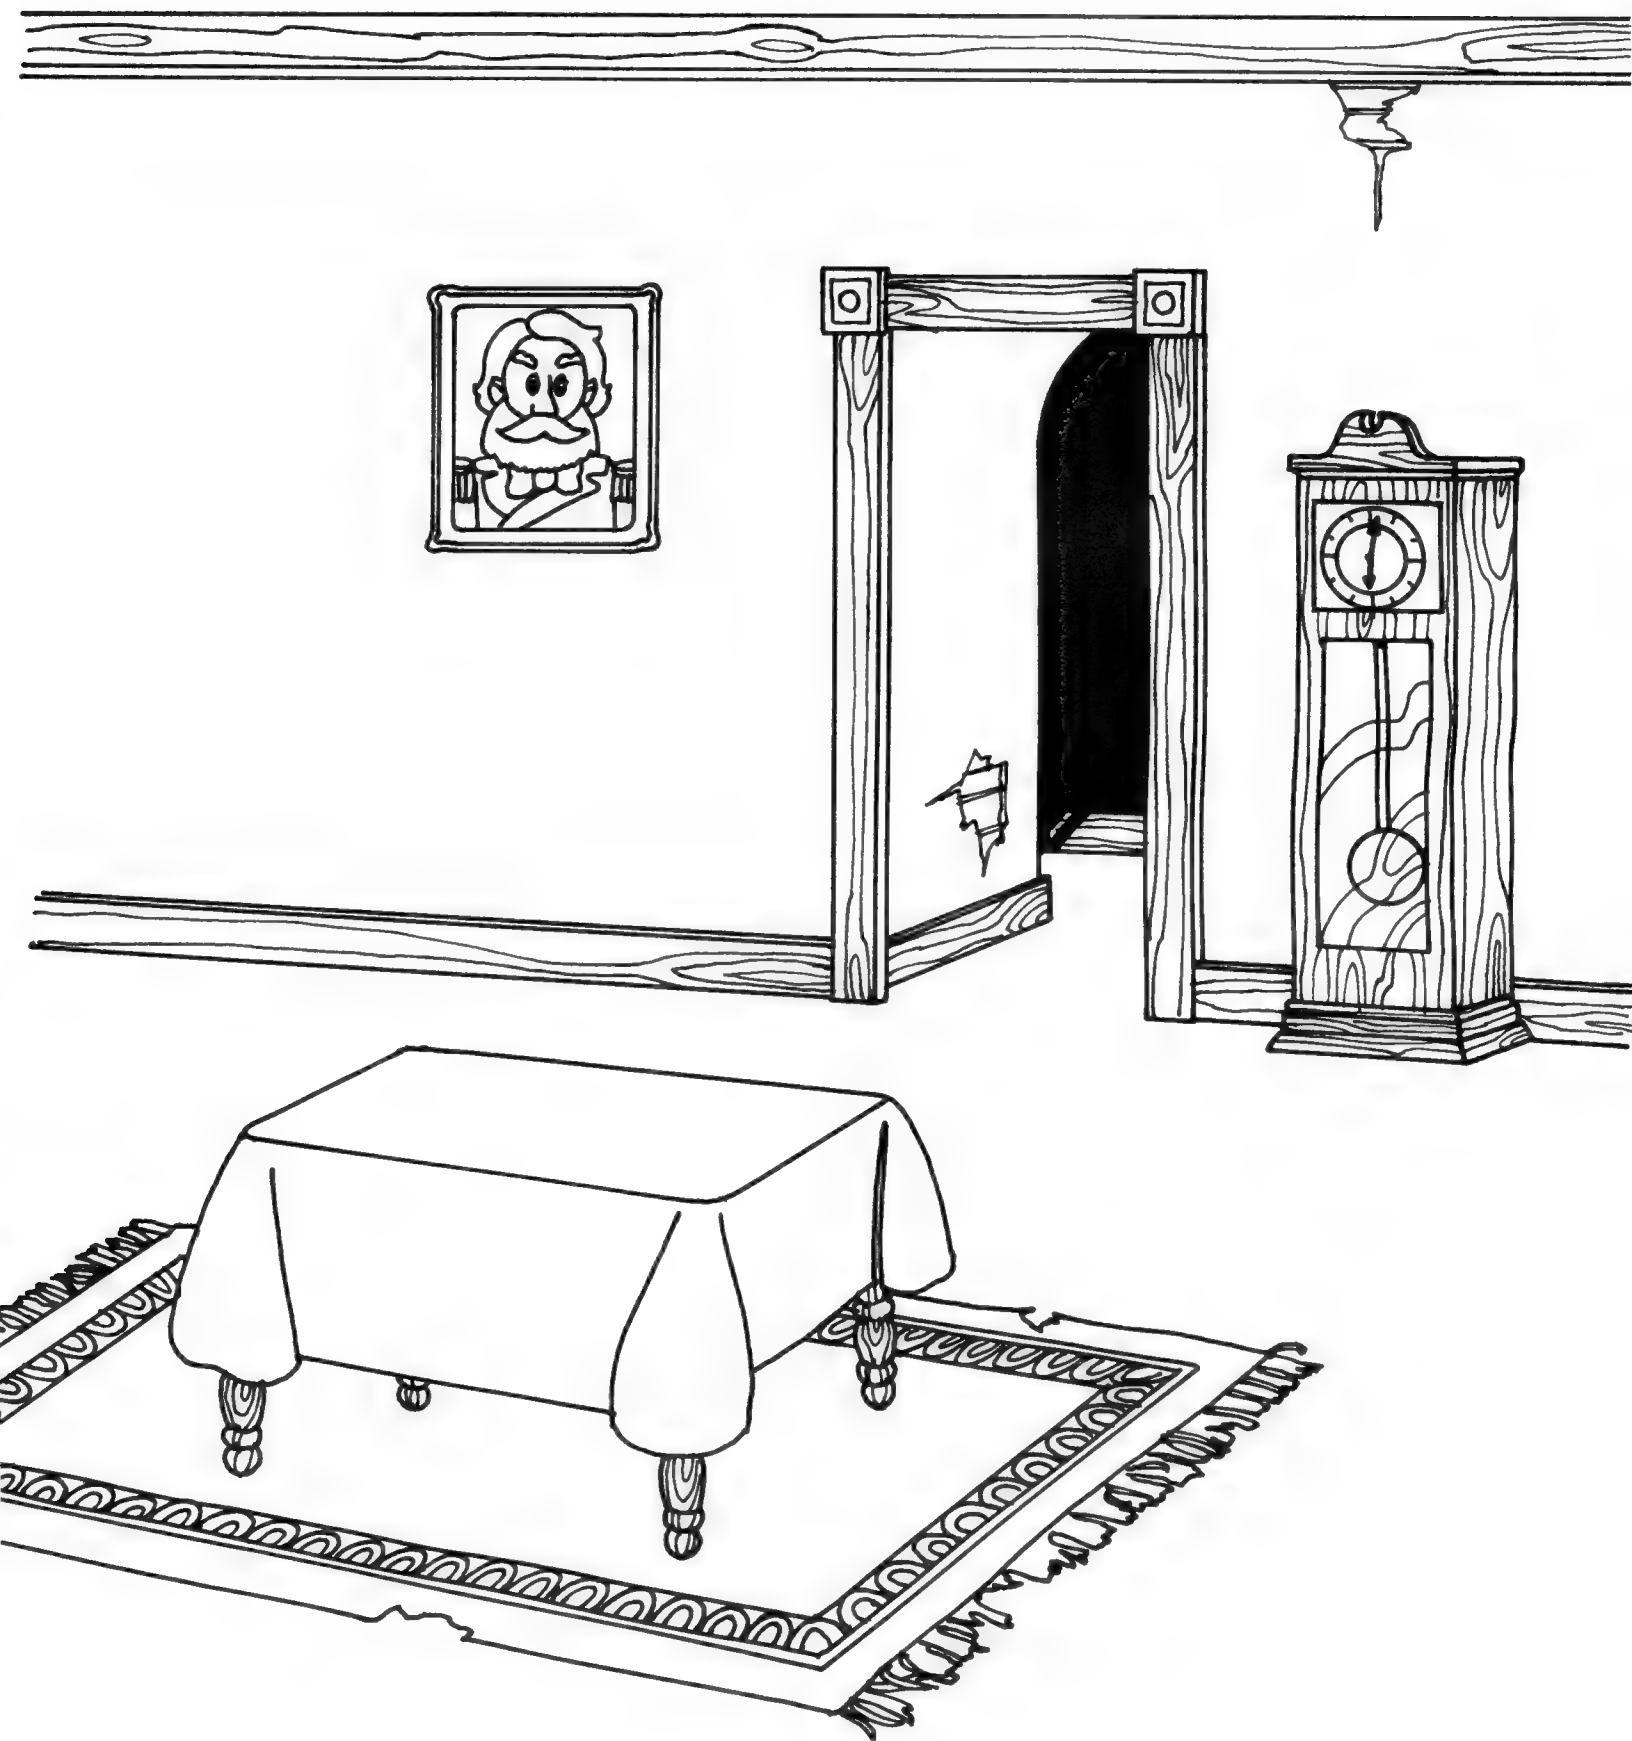

Screech . . . screech . . . the old door opened slowly.

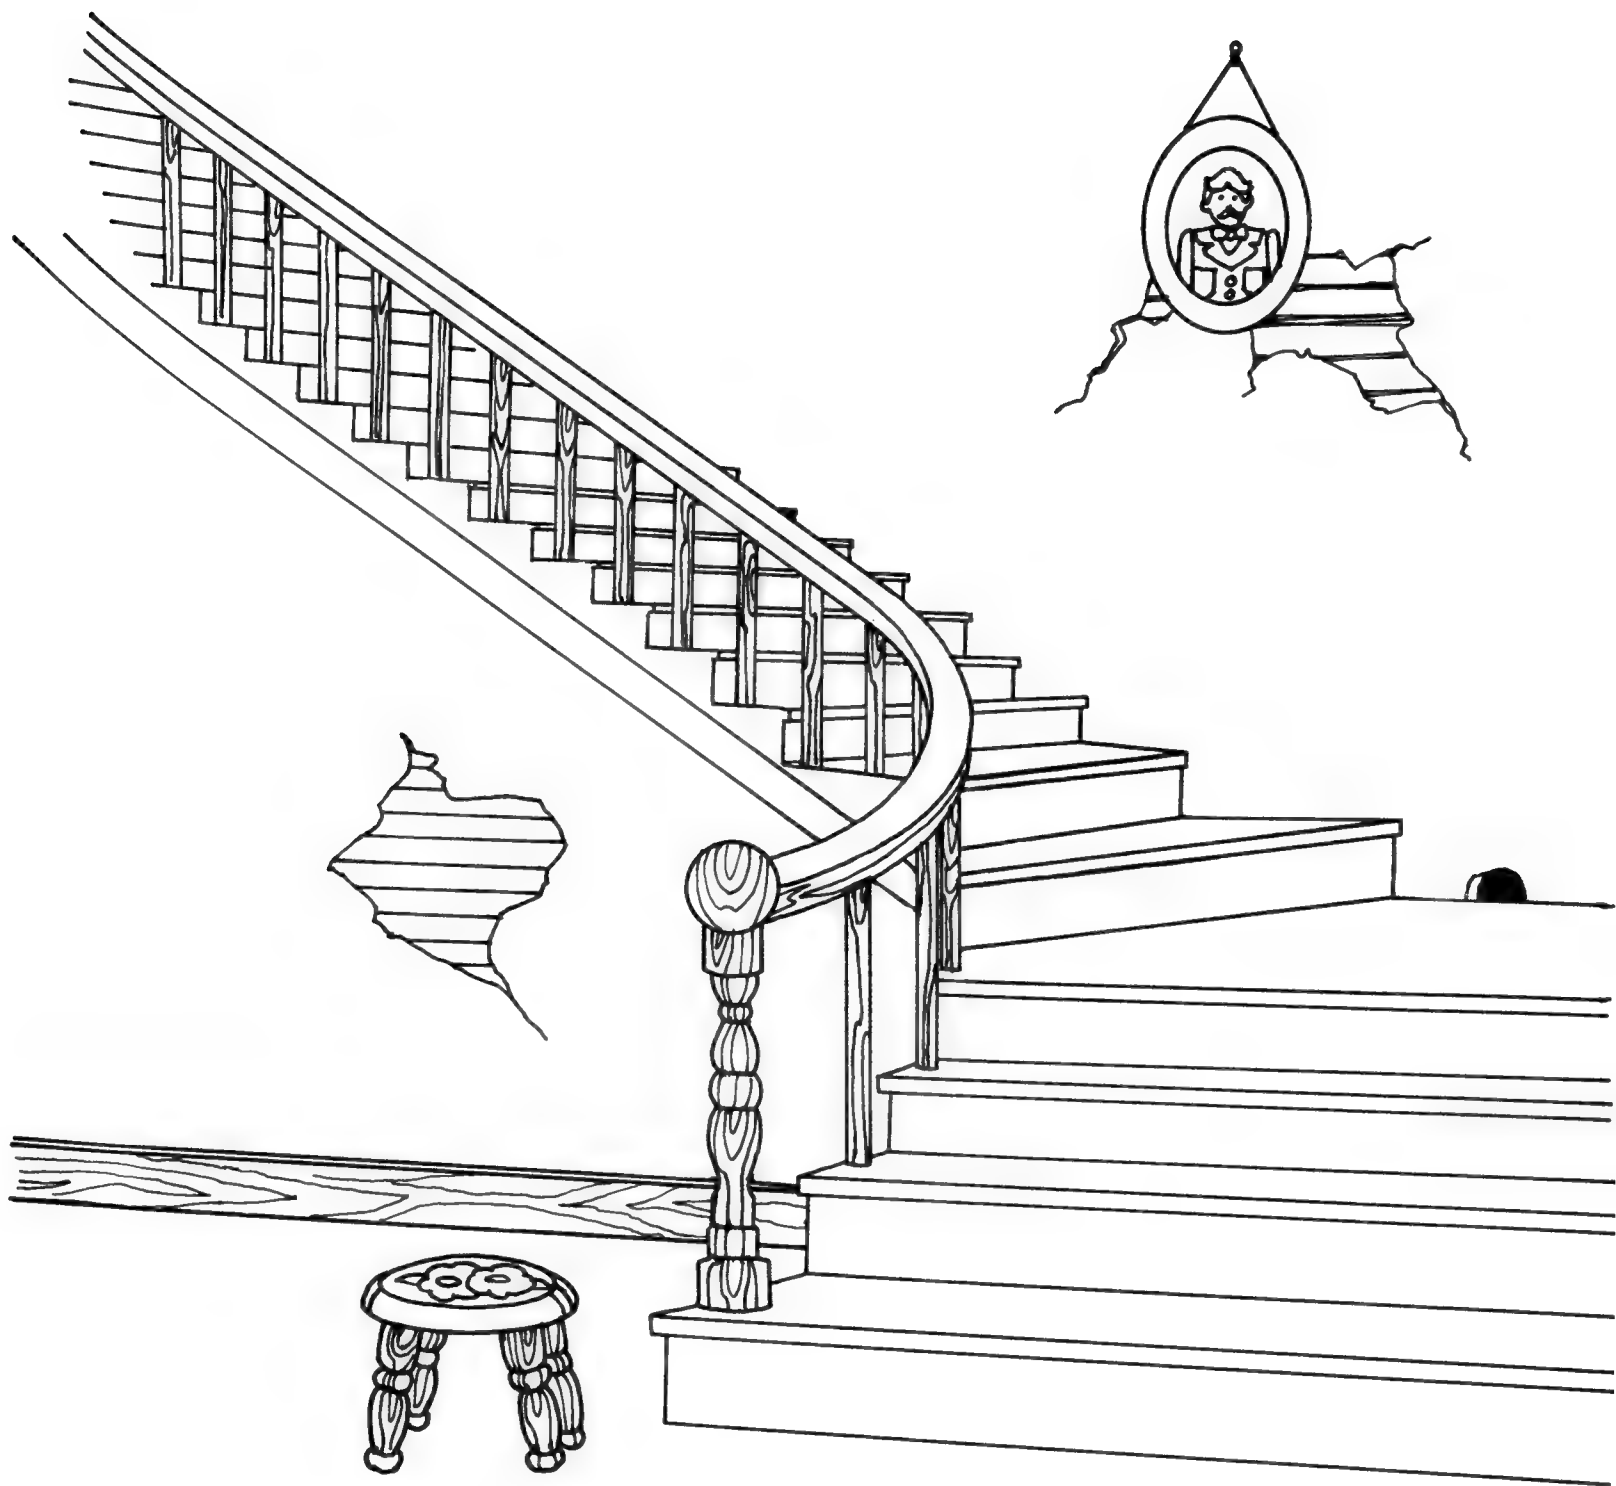

"Toby, come here Toby," called Chris.

"Just look at this old house," whispered Carrie.

"That's a picture of my great grandfather," said Susan.

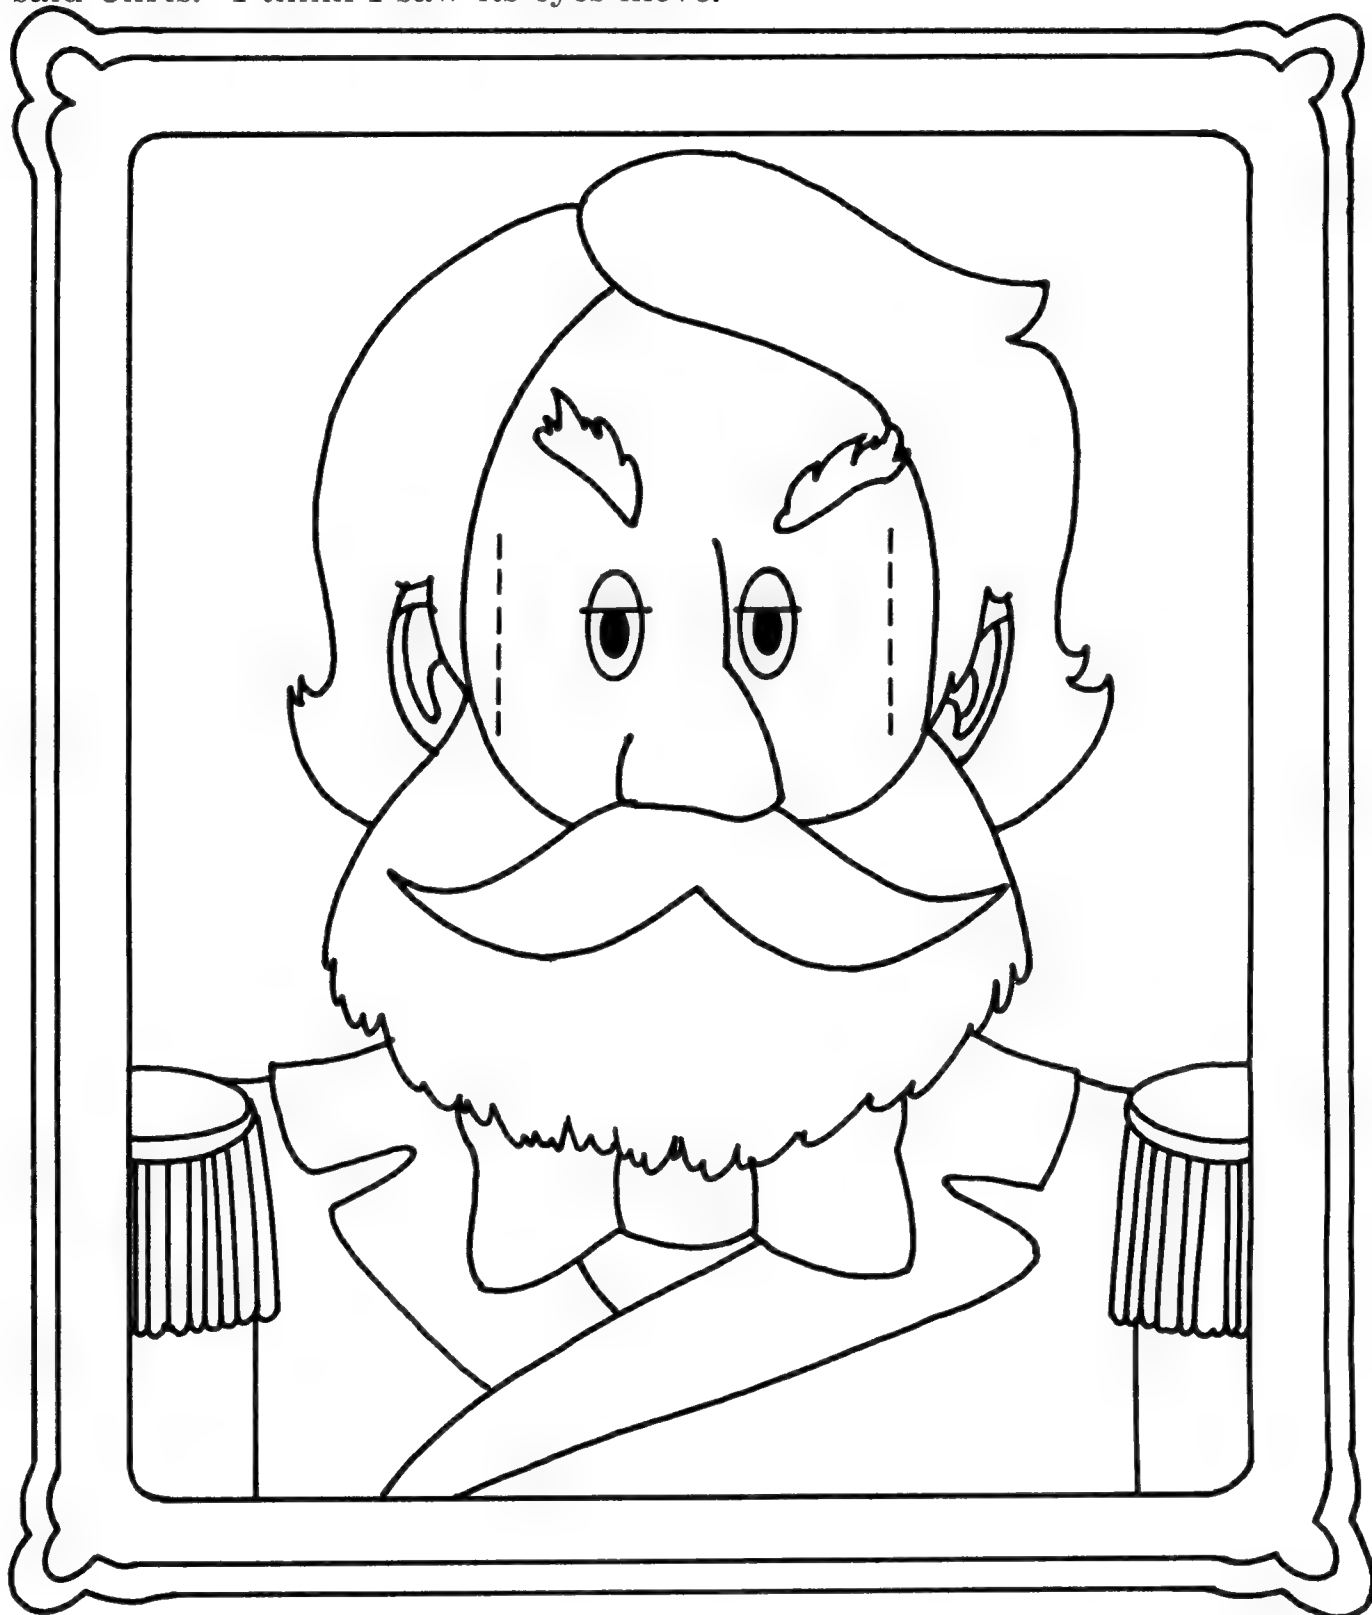

- Use your Colorubs to complete this picture.
Add bats and other spooky things. Then color the picture.

"I feel like someone is watching us," cried Susan.

"Look at your great grandfather's picture," said Chris. "I think I saw its eyes move."

- You can make the eyes move on the picture.
Cut out the strip with the three sets of eyes.
Then cut two slits on the face and slide the strip through.

"We'd better find Toby soon," said Carrie.

"Let's look in all the rooms," said Chris.

"We'll split up and meet back here in 15 minutes."

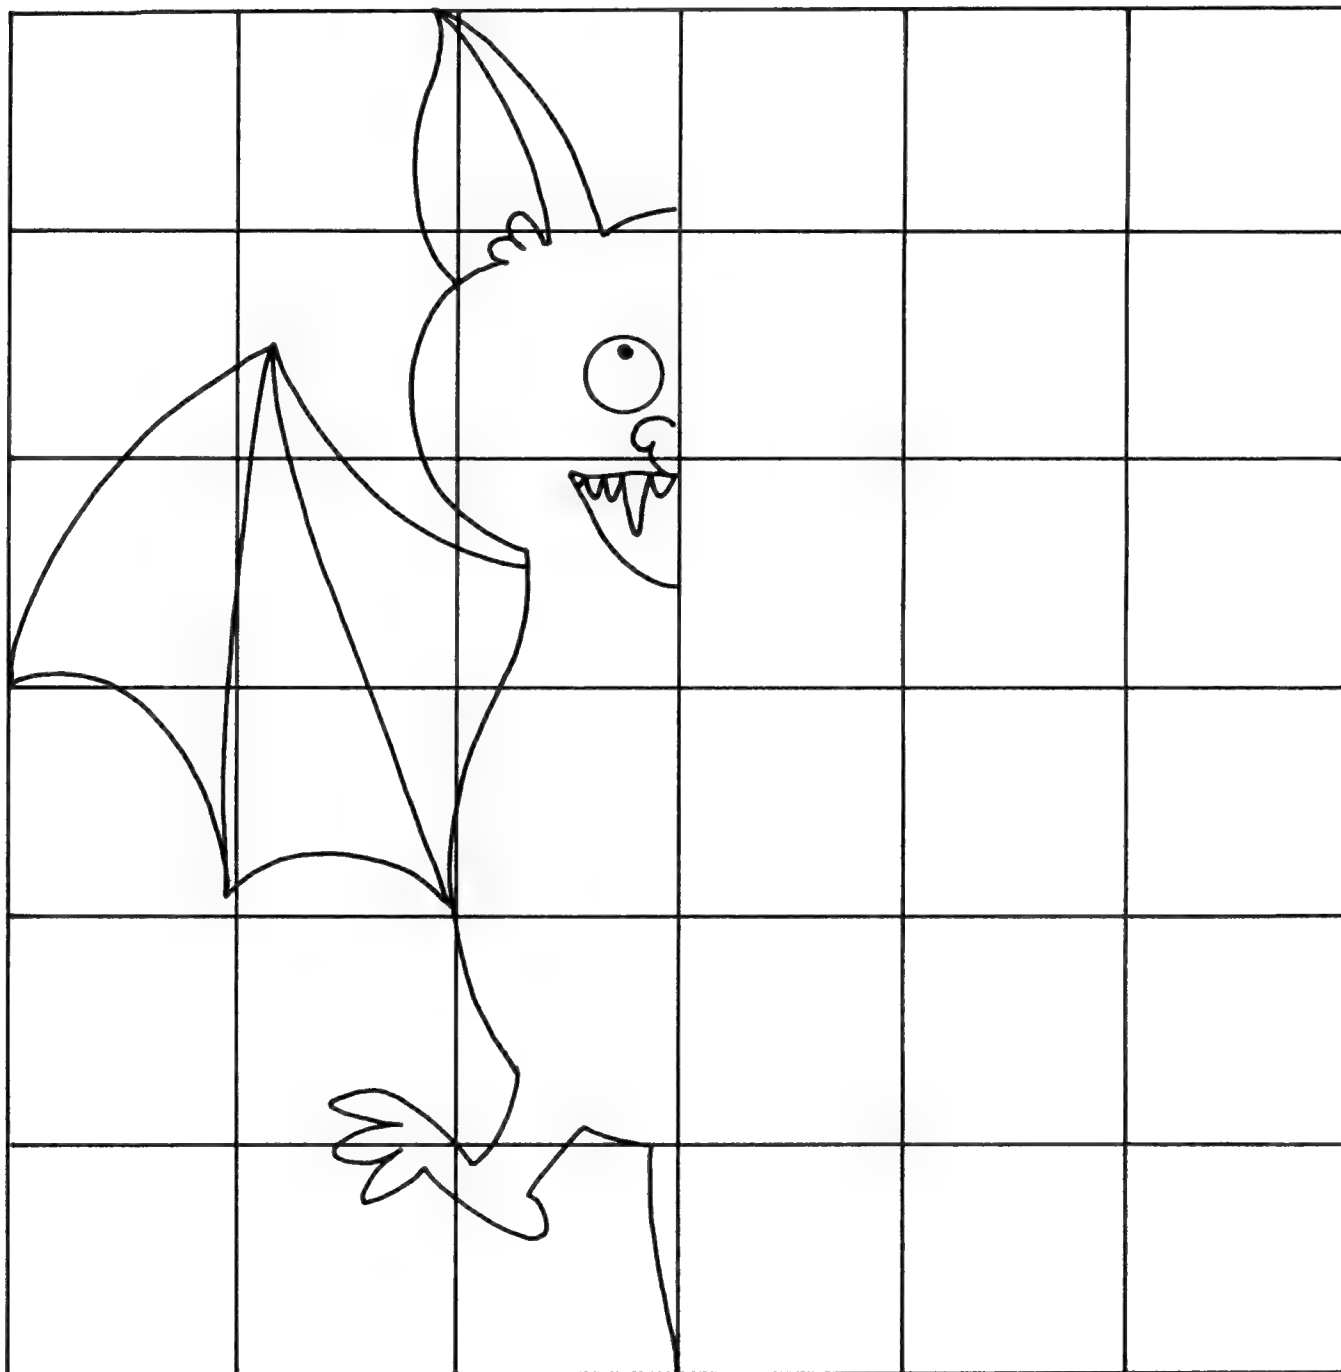

- Play this game with a friend.
Take turns connecting 2 dots, up and down or across. Each box stands for a room you have looked in.
See who can look in the most rooms.
Put your initials inside each box you completed.

“I looked in lots of rooms,” said Chris when they came back together, “but I didn’t find Toby.”

“Then let’s look in the closets,” said Susan.
“I’ll start with this one.”

“Oh no,” said Carrie. “There’s something in the closet, but it’s not Toby.”

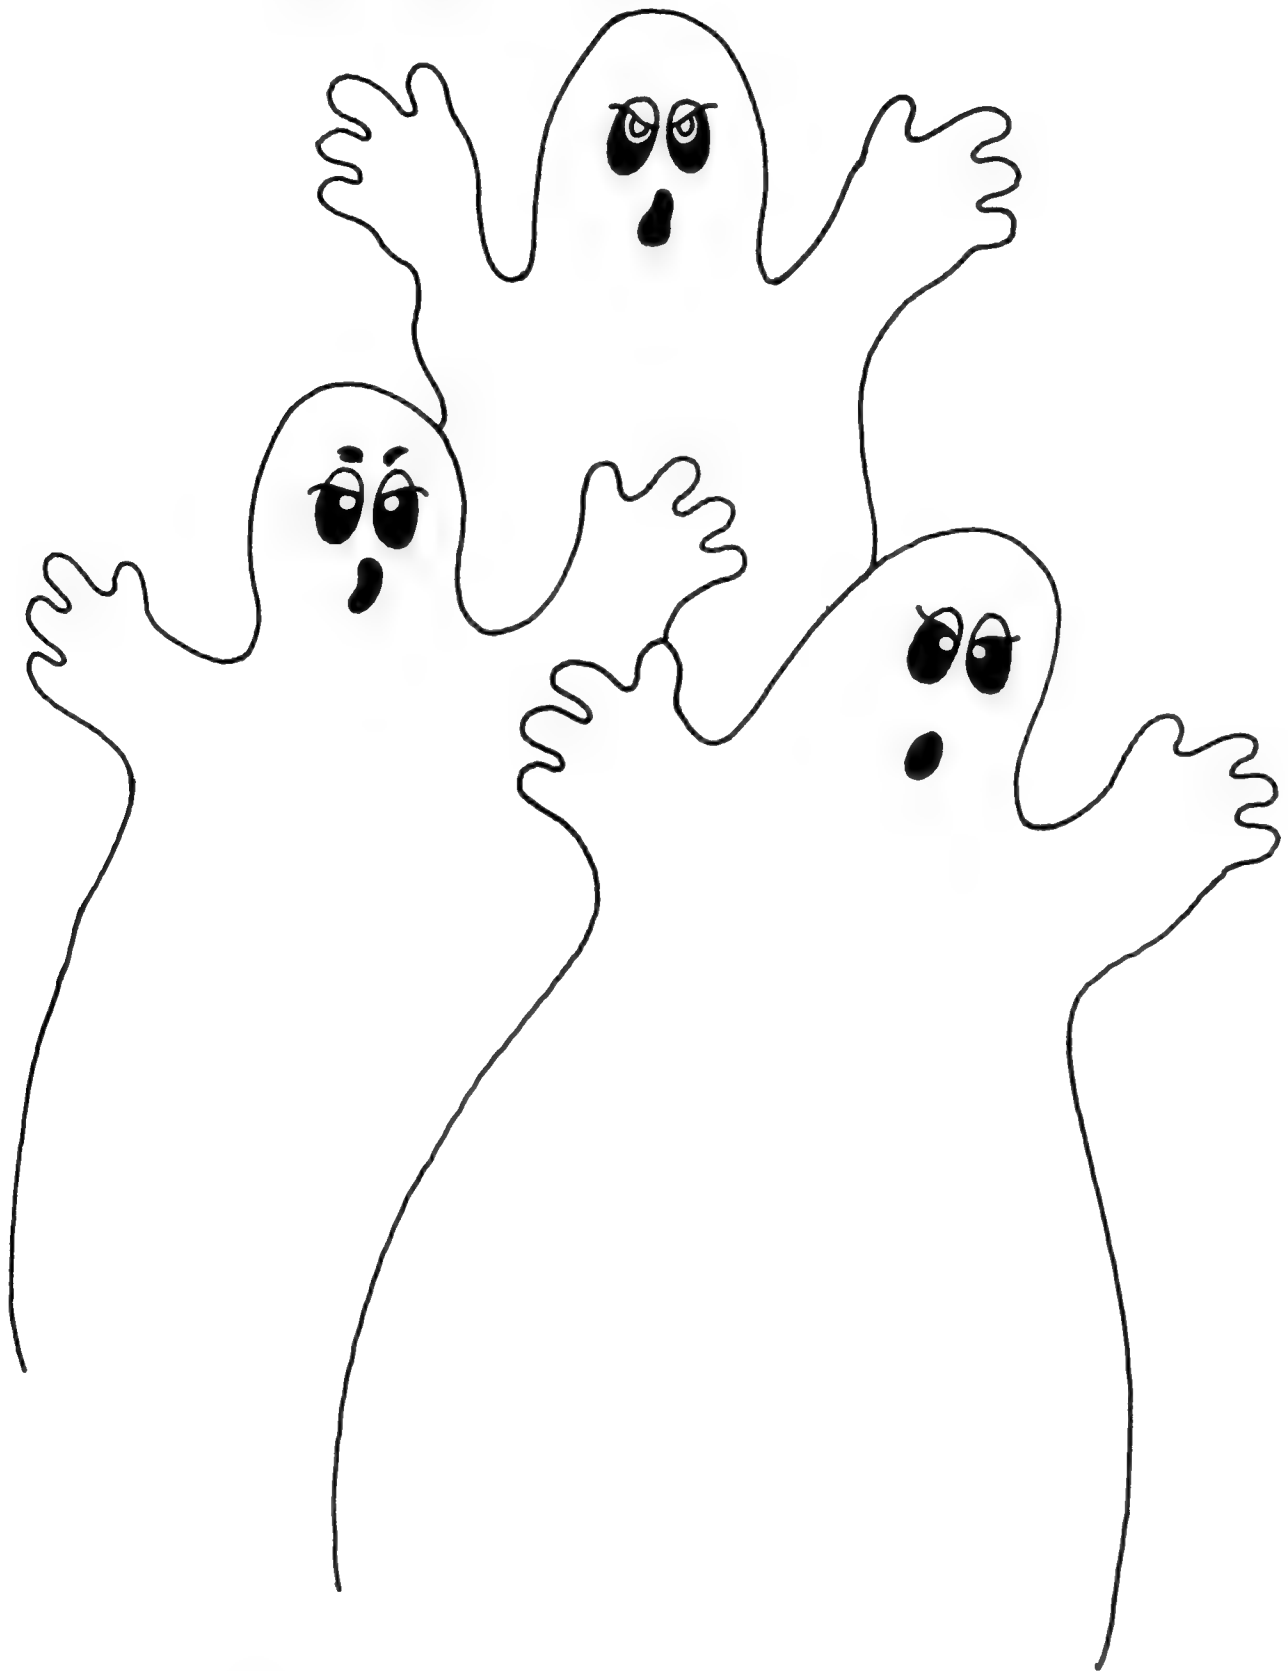

- Here is half of a picture of a bat Susan found in the closet.
Draw the other half by following the pattern.

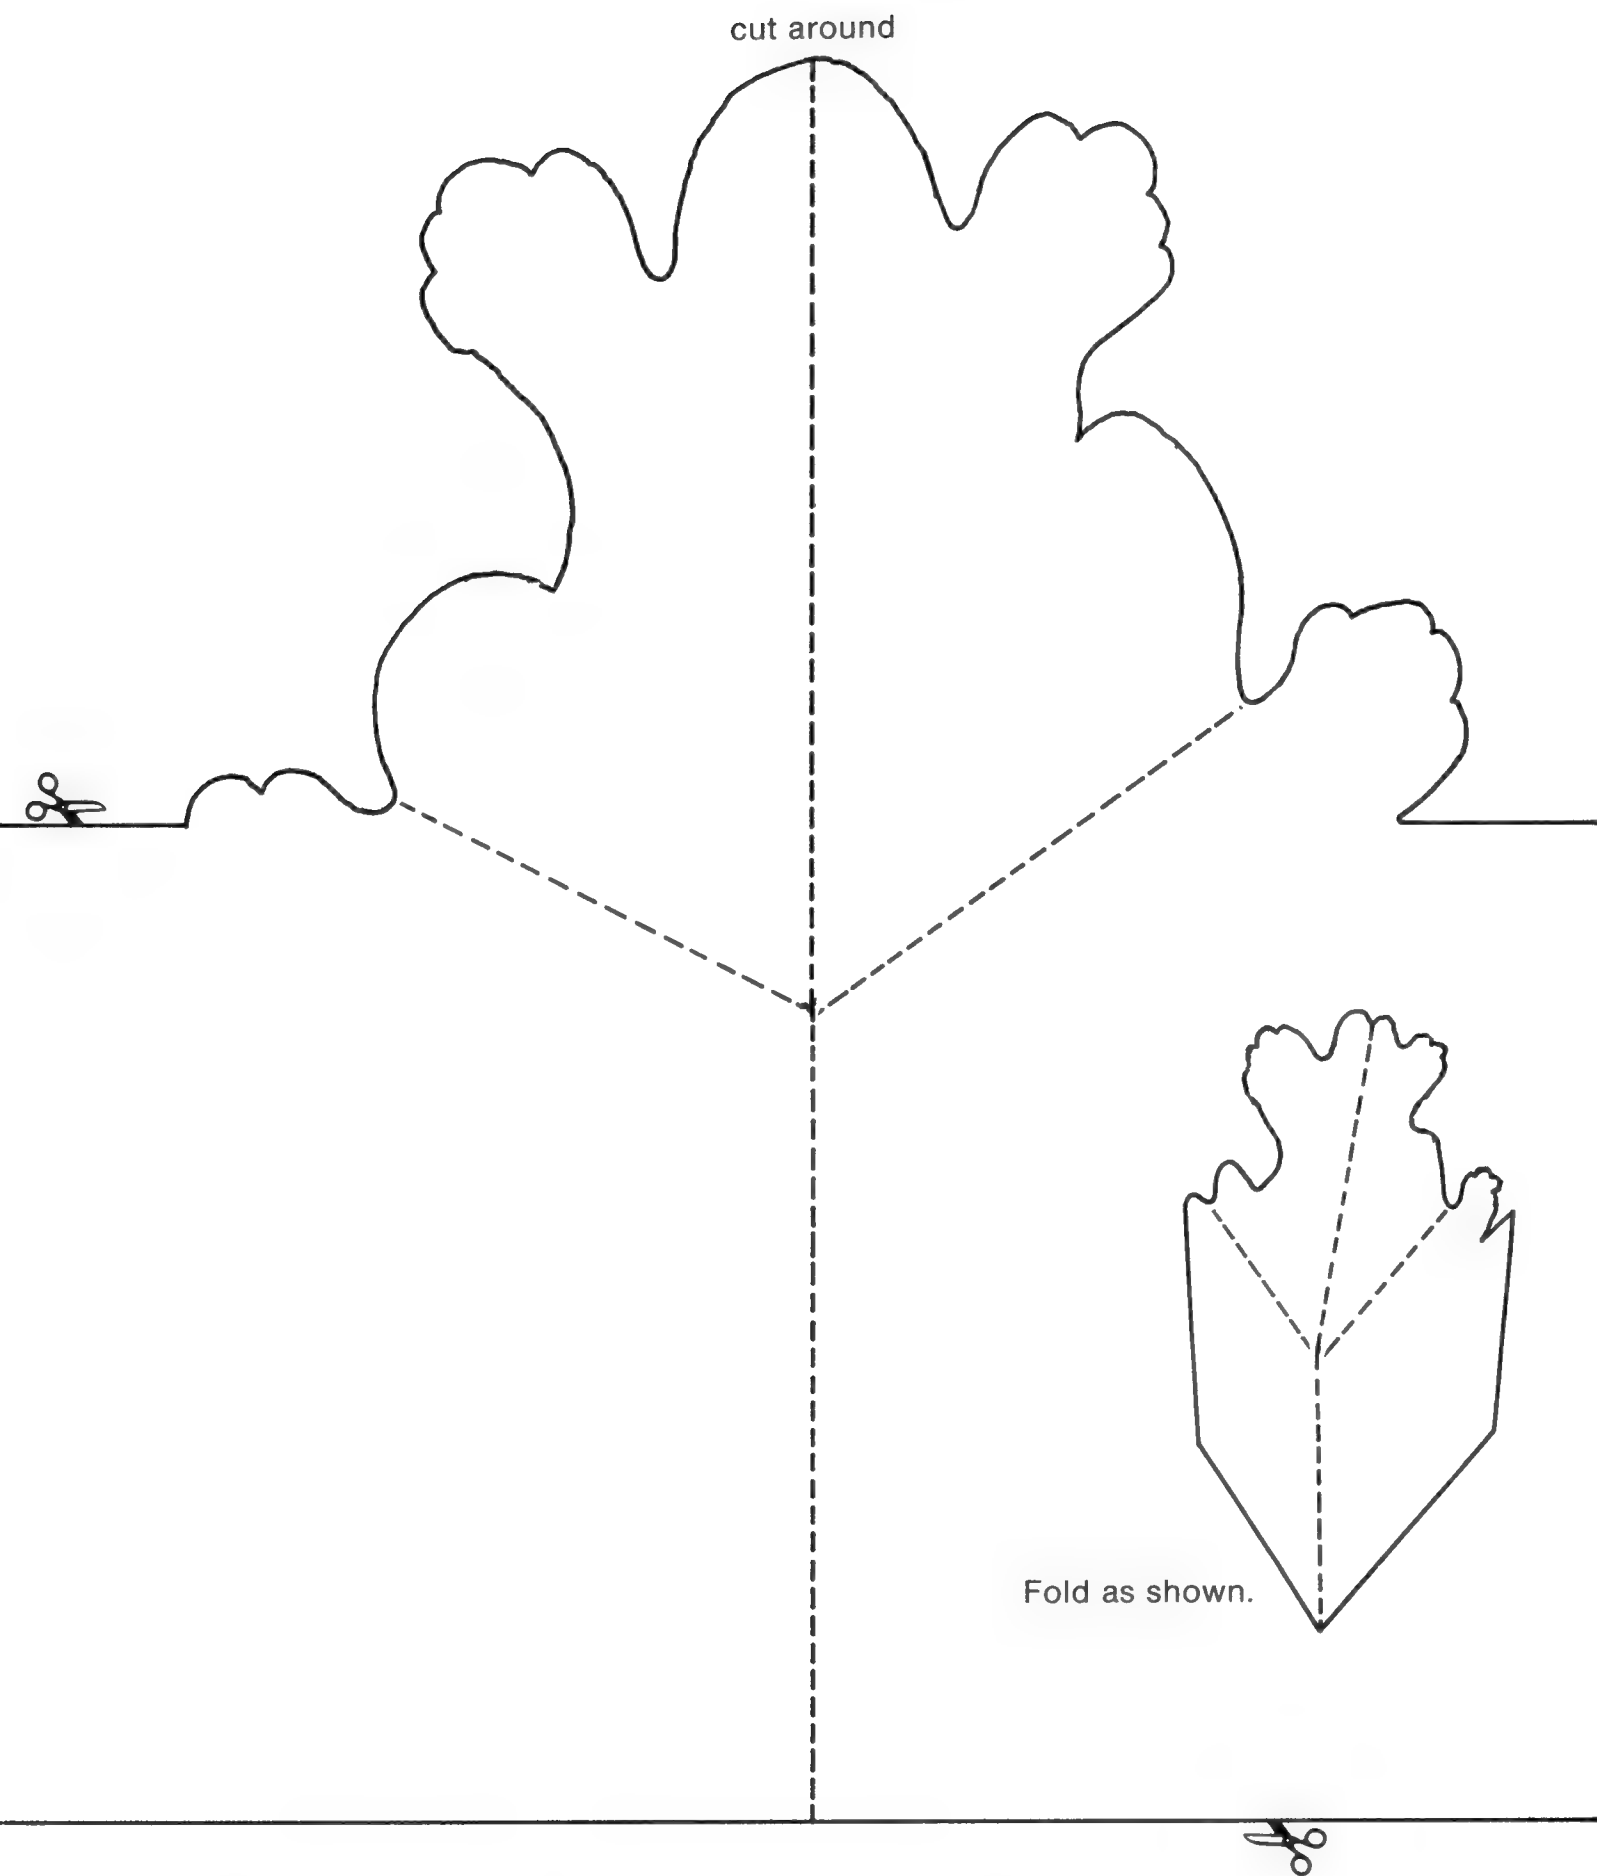

"This house is full of scary things," said Susan.

"But we haven't seen any ghosts," said Carrie, "until now!"

"I see what you mean," answered Chris.

- Remove this page.
Make a pop-up picture of the ghosts that Chris and Carrie saw.
See the lines on page 22.

- Fold on the dotted lines. Then cut around the lines.

The Ghost Expert Arrives

“There are ghosts,” said Chris. “Let’s get out of here.”

As Susan and the Kids headed for the door they ran into a stranger.

“Get out of here,” said Chris, “this house is haunted.”

“I know,” said the stranger. “I’m Alexander Periwinkle, the world’s most famous hunter of ghosts.”

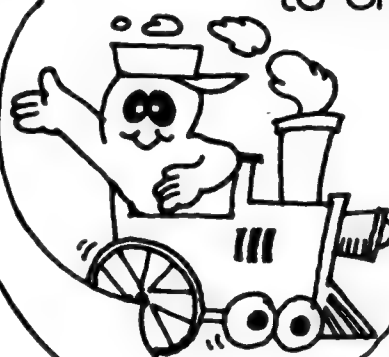

"I know everything about ghosts," said Alexander Periwinkle.

"You do?" said Chris. "Then let me ask you some questions."

What do
GHOSTS eat
for dessert?

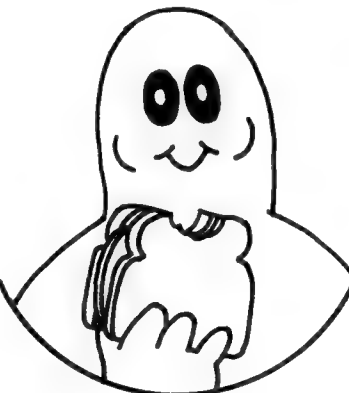

How do
GHOSTS
get from city to city?

Why did the sheriff arrest the GHOST?

What do GHOSTS eat for lunch?

"I want to see those ghosts," said Alexander Periwinkle.

"And we want to find Susan's puppy," said Chris.

"Fine," said Alex. "I'll help you find the puppy if you help me find the ghosts. How many did you see?"

Answers on page 48.

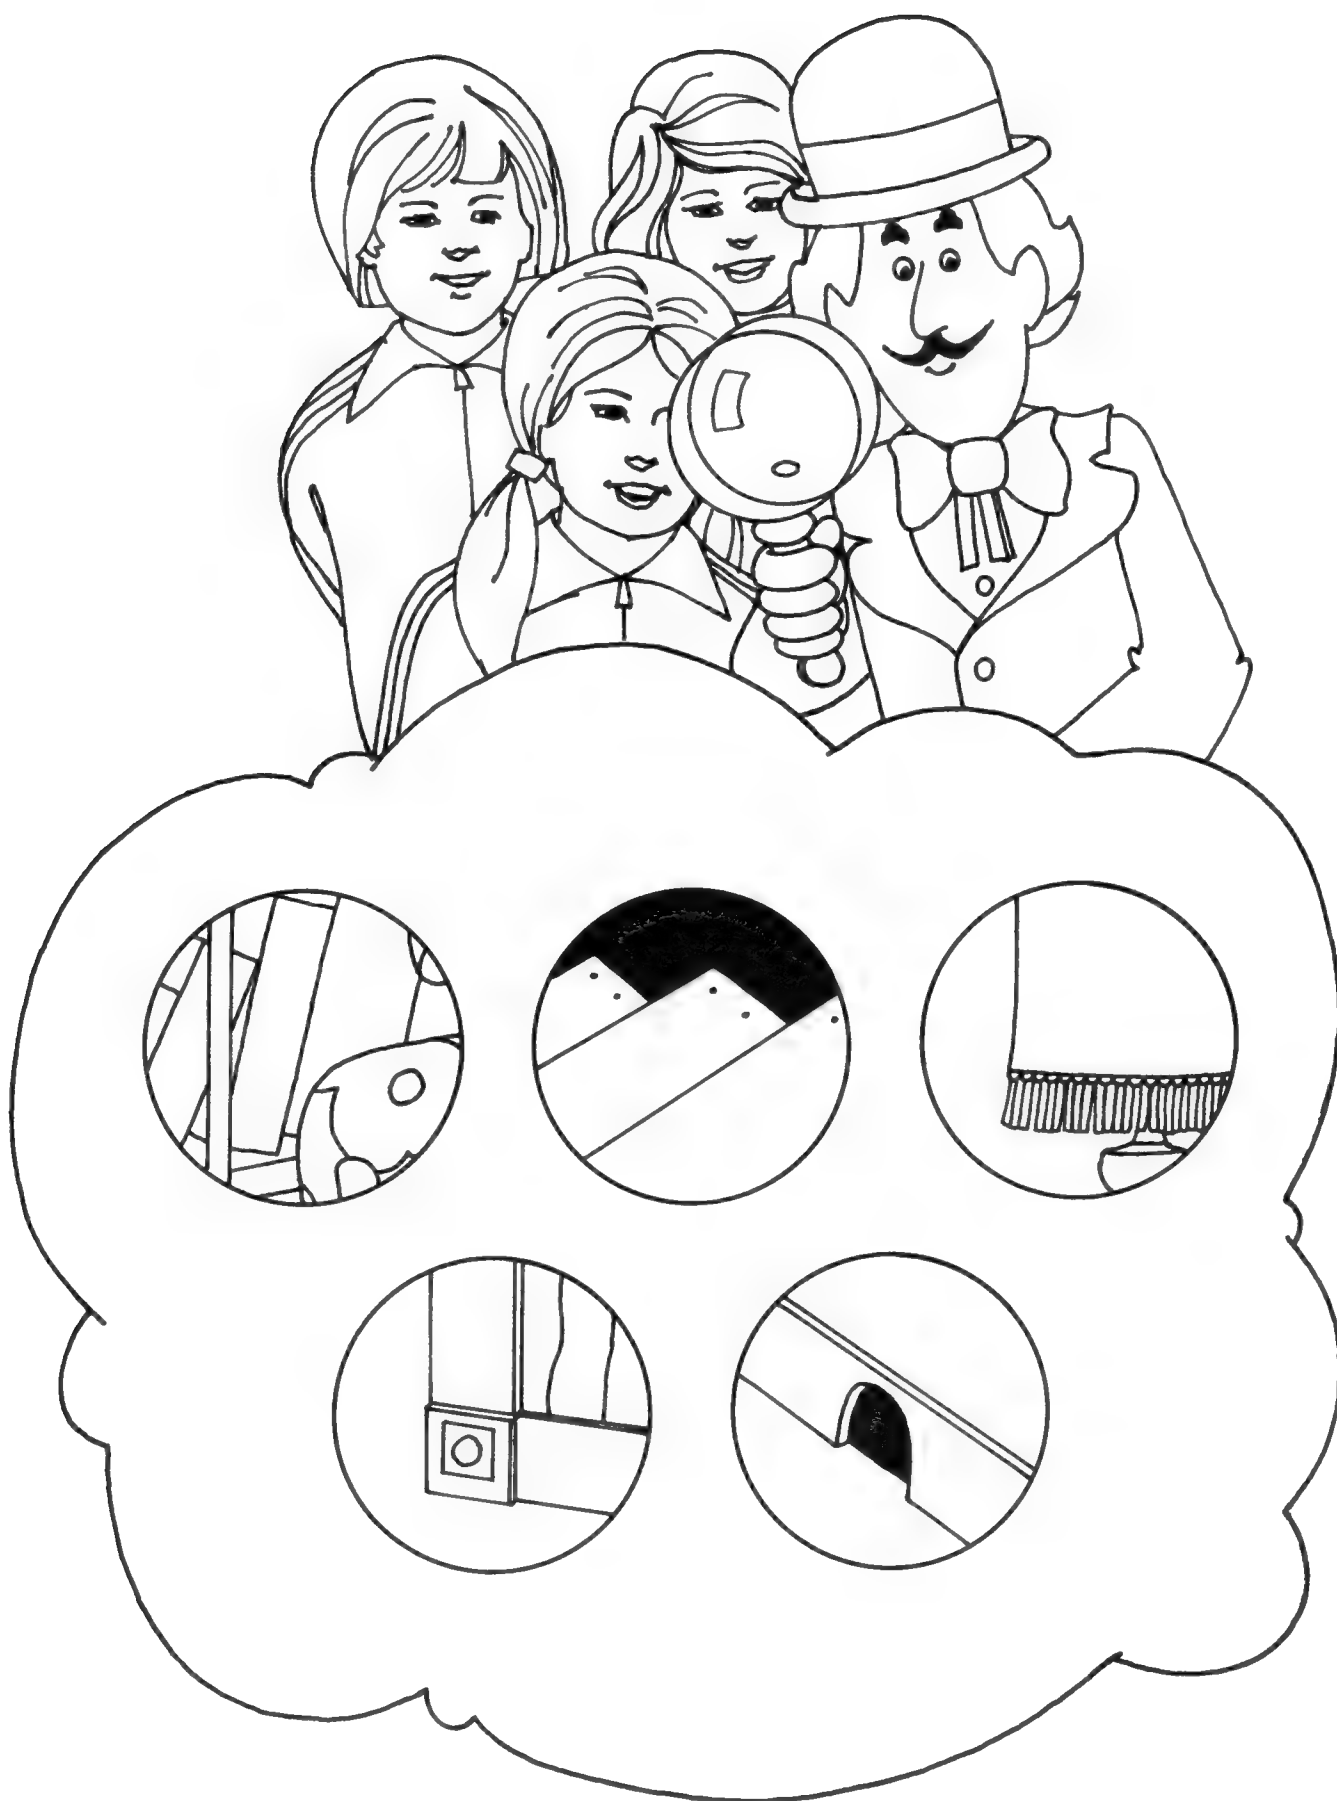

“Three ghosts,” said Alex. “Let’s start our search for them in the library. Ghosts like to read when no one is around.”

- Mr. Periwinkle is looking for ghost clues with a magnifying glass. Look on page 27 for the things he has magnified. Then find them in the library and circle them. Color the picture.

• Color the picture.

“No ghosts in the library,” said Alex.

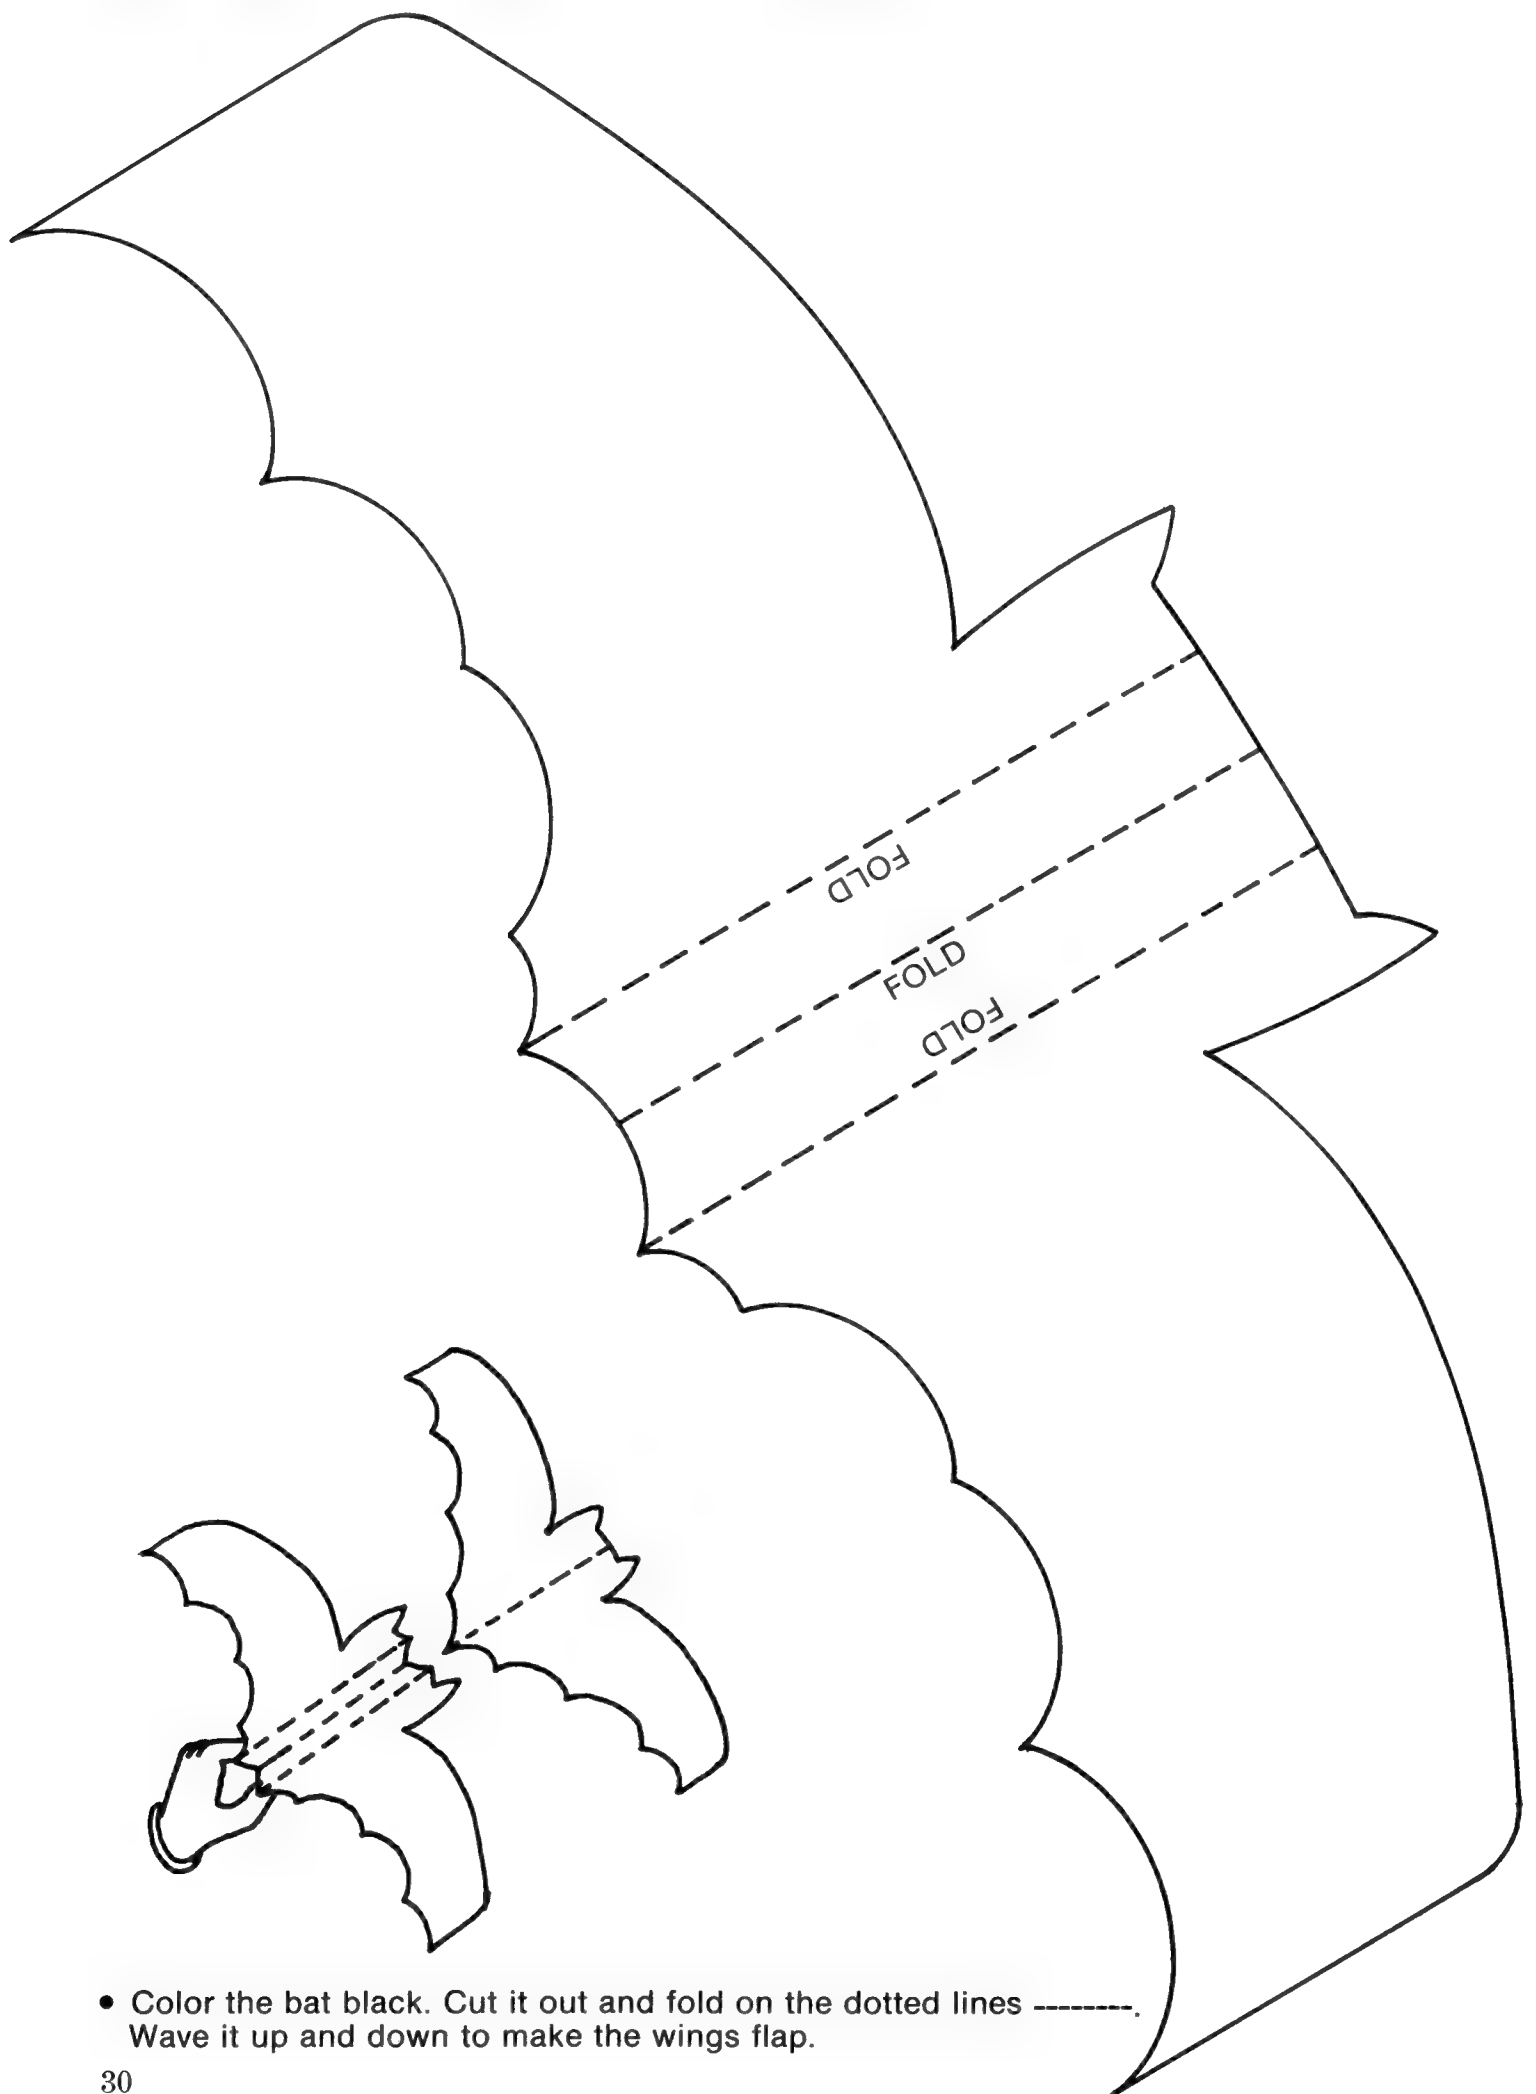

“Then let’s look in the attic,” said Chris.

- Use your Colorubs to complete the attic. Put Chris and Carrie in, too. Then color the picture.

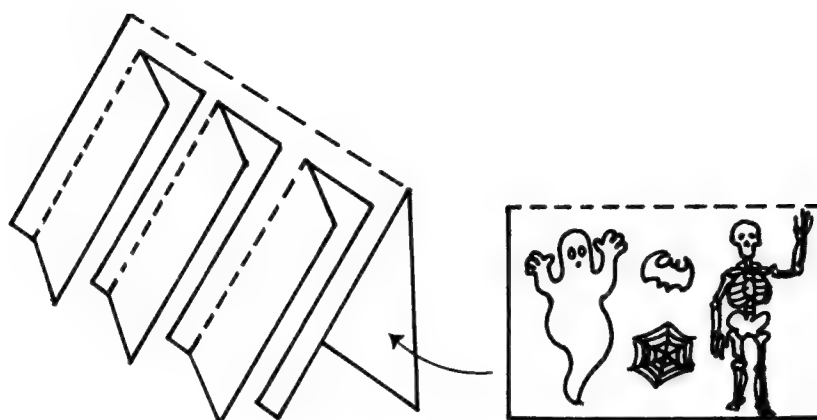

“Oh,” cried Carrie. “Watch out! There’s another bat.”

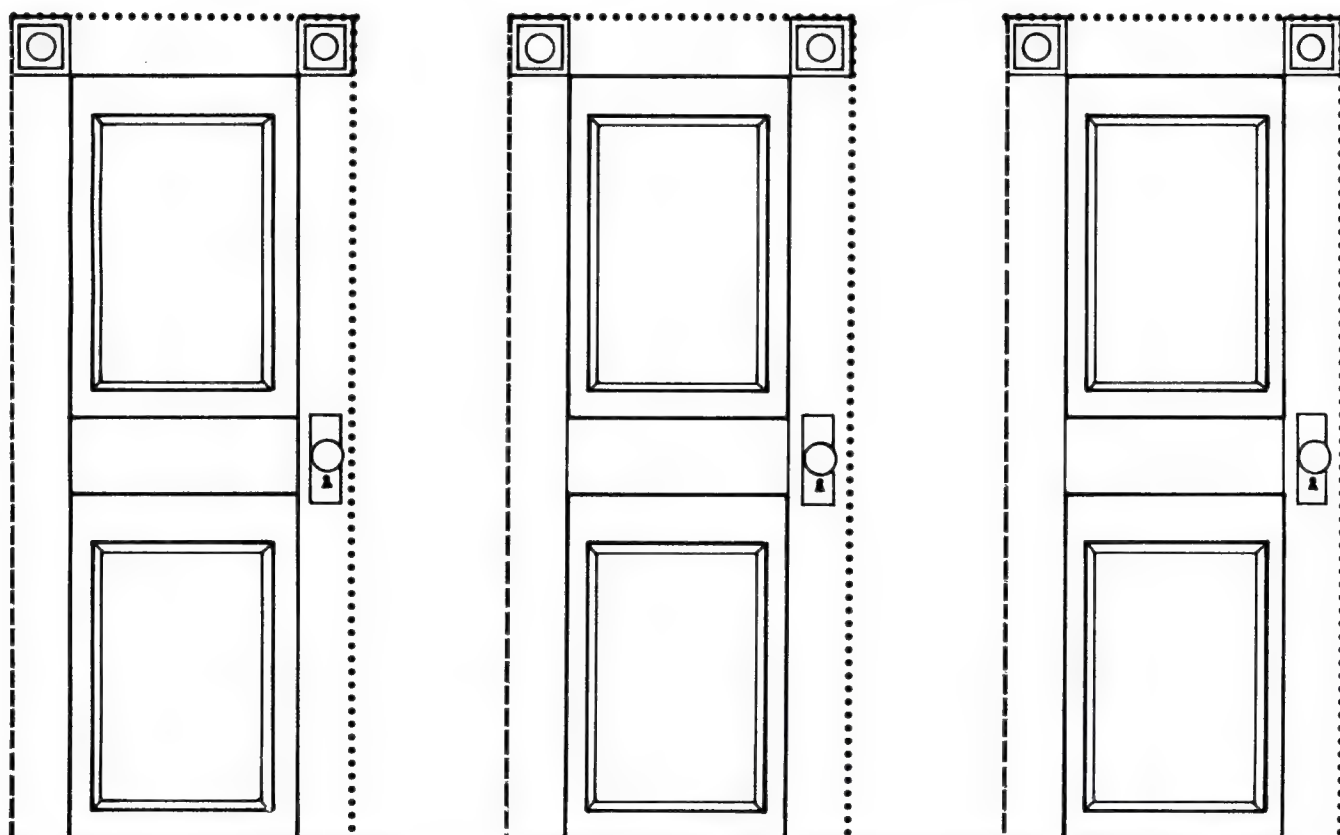

- Color the bat black. Cut it out and fold on the dotted lines -----.
Wave it up and down to make the wings flap.

“We’ve found bats, but no ghosts or puppies,” sighed Alex. “Let’s go down this hallway and look behind every door.”

“I know how we can bring the ghosts out of hiding,” said Alex. “Ghosts like to scare people, but they hate being scared themselves. Let’s put on masks. We’ll scare them out of hiding.”

- Here is a mask like Susan, the Kids and Alex wore. Complete it with Colorubs. Then color it, cut it out and wear it yourself.

The Ghosts Appear

Everyone put on their masks.

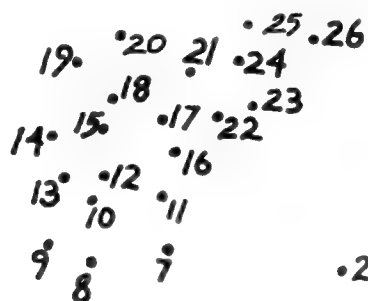

“Let’s start in the cellar,” said Chris.

Carrie quietly opened the cellar door.

“Look,” cried Susan.

“Cry ‘boo’,” called Alex.

“Boo! boo! boo! boo!” everyone cried.

"Ghosts!" cried Chris. "Are you sure they just want to scare us, Alex?"

Before Alex could answer one of the ghosts spoke.

"We just want you to go away. My name is Benjamin and this is Chadwick and Maxwell."

"Why are you trying to scare us?" asked Carrie.

"Aren't you the people who want to build a highway through this house?" asked Chadwick.

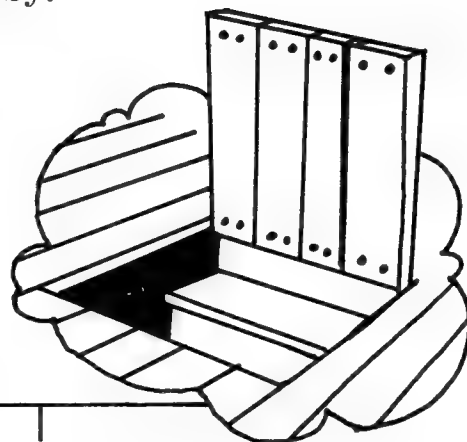

• Color the picture.

“No,” said Susan, “we’re just looking for my dog Toby!”

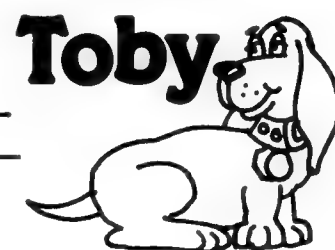

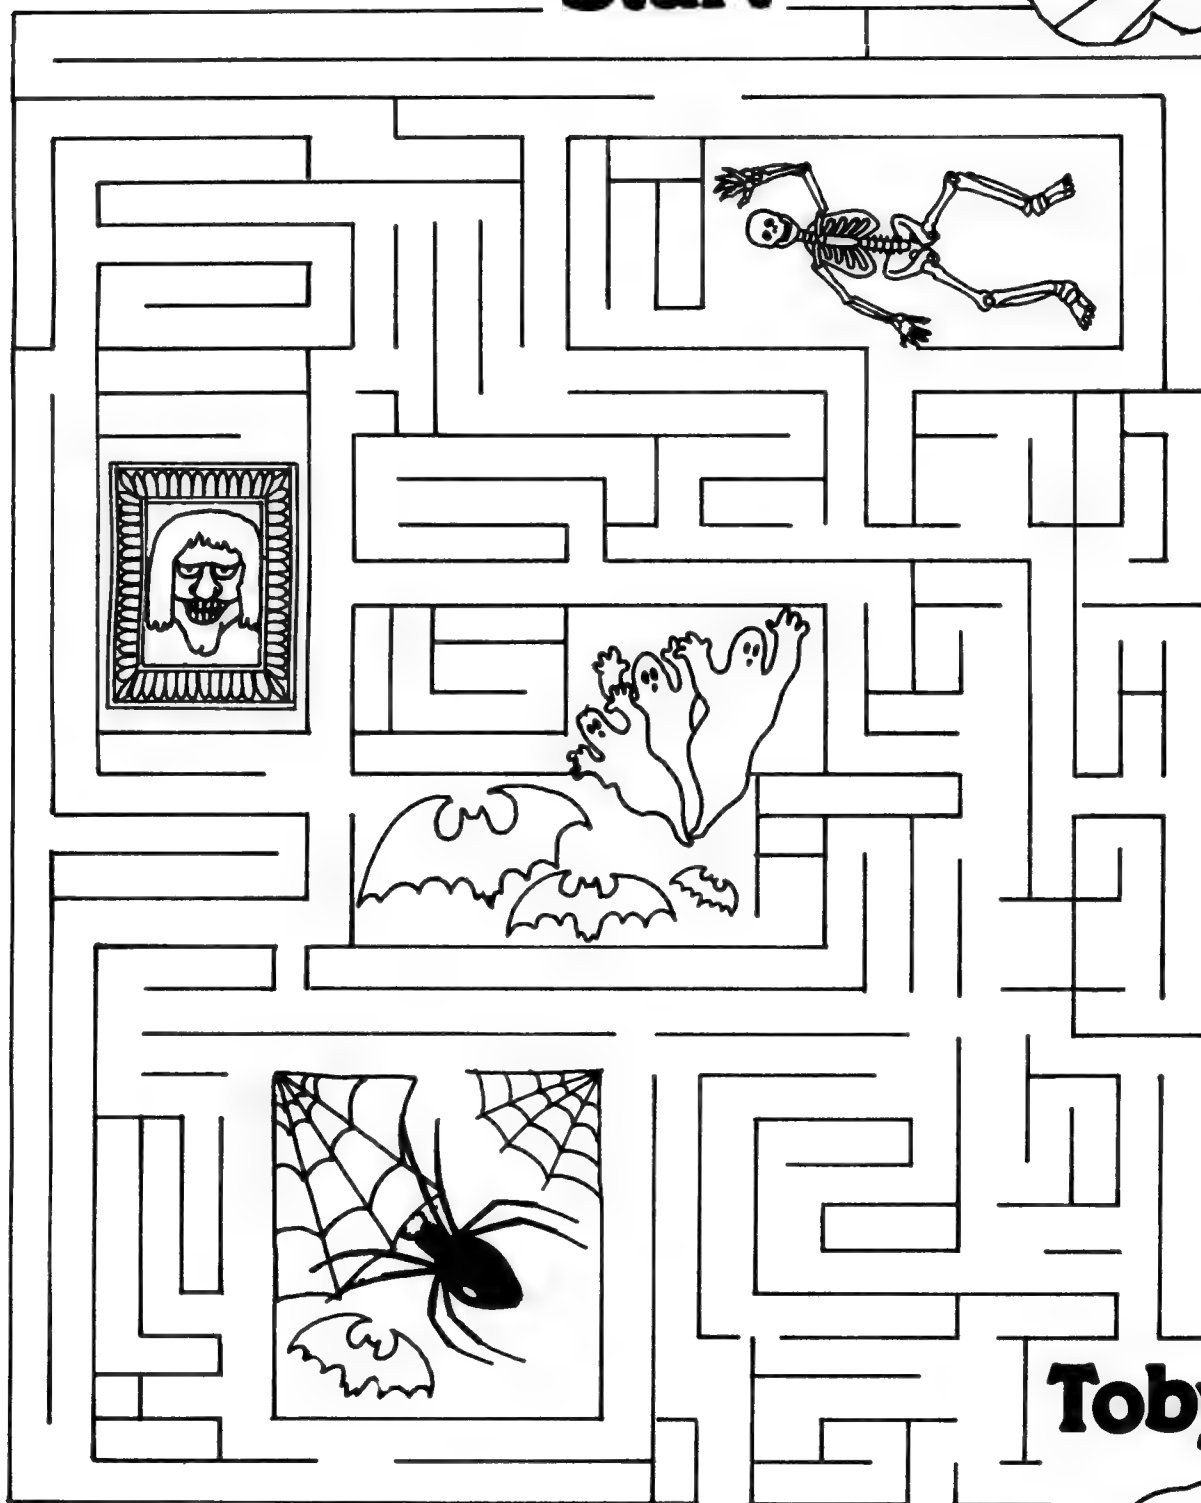

“We can help you find him,” said Maxwell.

“And maybe we can stop the highway from being built here,” said Alex.

“I think the puppy fell through the trapdoor in the library,” said Chadwick.

Start

- Can you help them find Toby?
Follow the maze from the trapdoor to the puppy.

Answers on page 48.

“Toby,” cried Susan when she saw the pup, “we’ve found you!”

“Yes,” said Chris, “now how can we stop the highway?”

“Susan,” said Alexander Periwinkle, “when was your great aunt’s house built?”

“In 1875,” answered Susan.

“Then they can’t build the highway through the house,” said Alex. “It’s over 100 years old. Houses that old can’t be torn down in this town without the owner’s permission.”

“My aunt would never let this house be torn down,” said Susan.

“The highway will have to go around the house,” said Chris.

- Here is a picture of the highway being built. Finish the highway. Show how it can go around the house. Then color the picture.

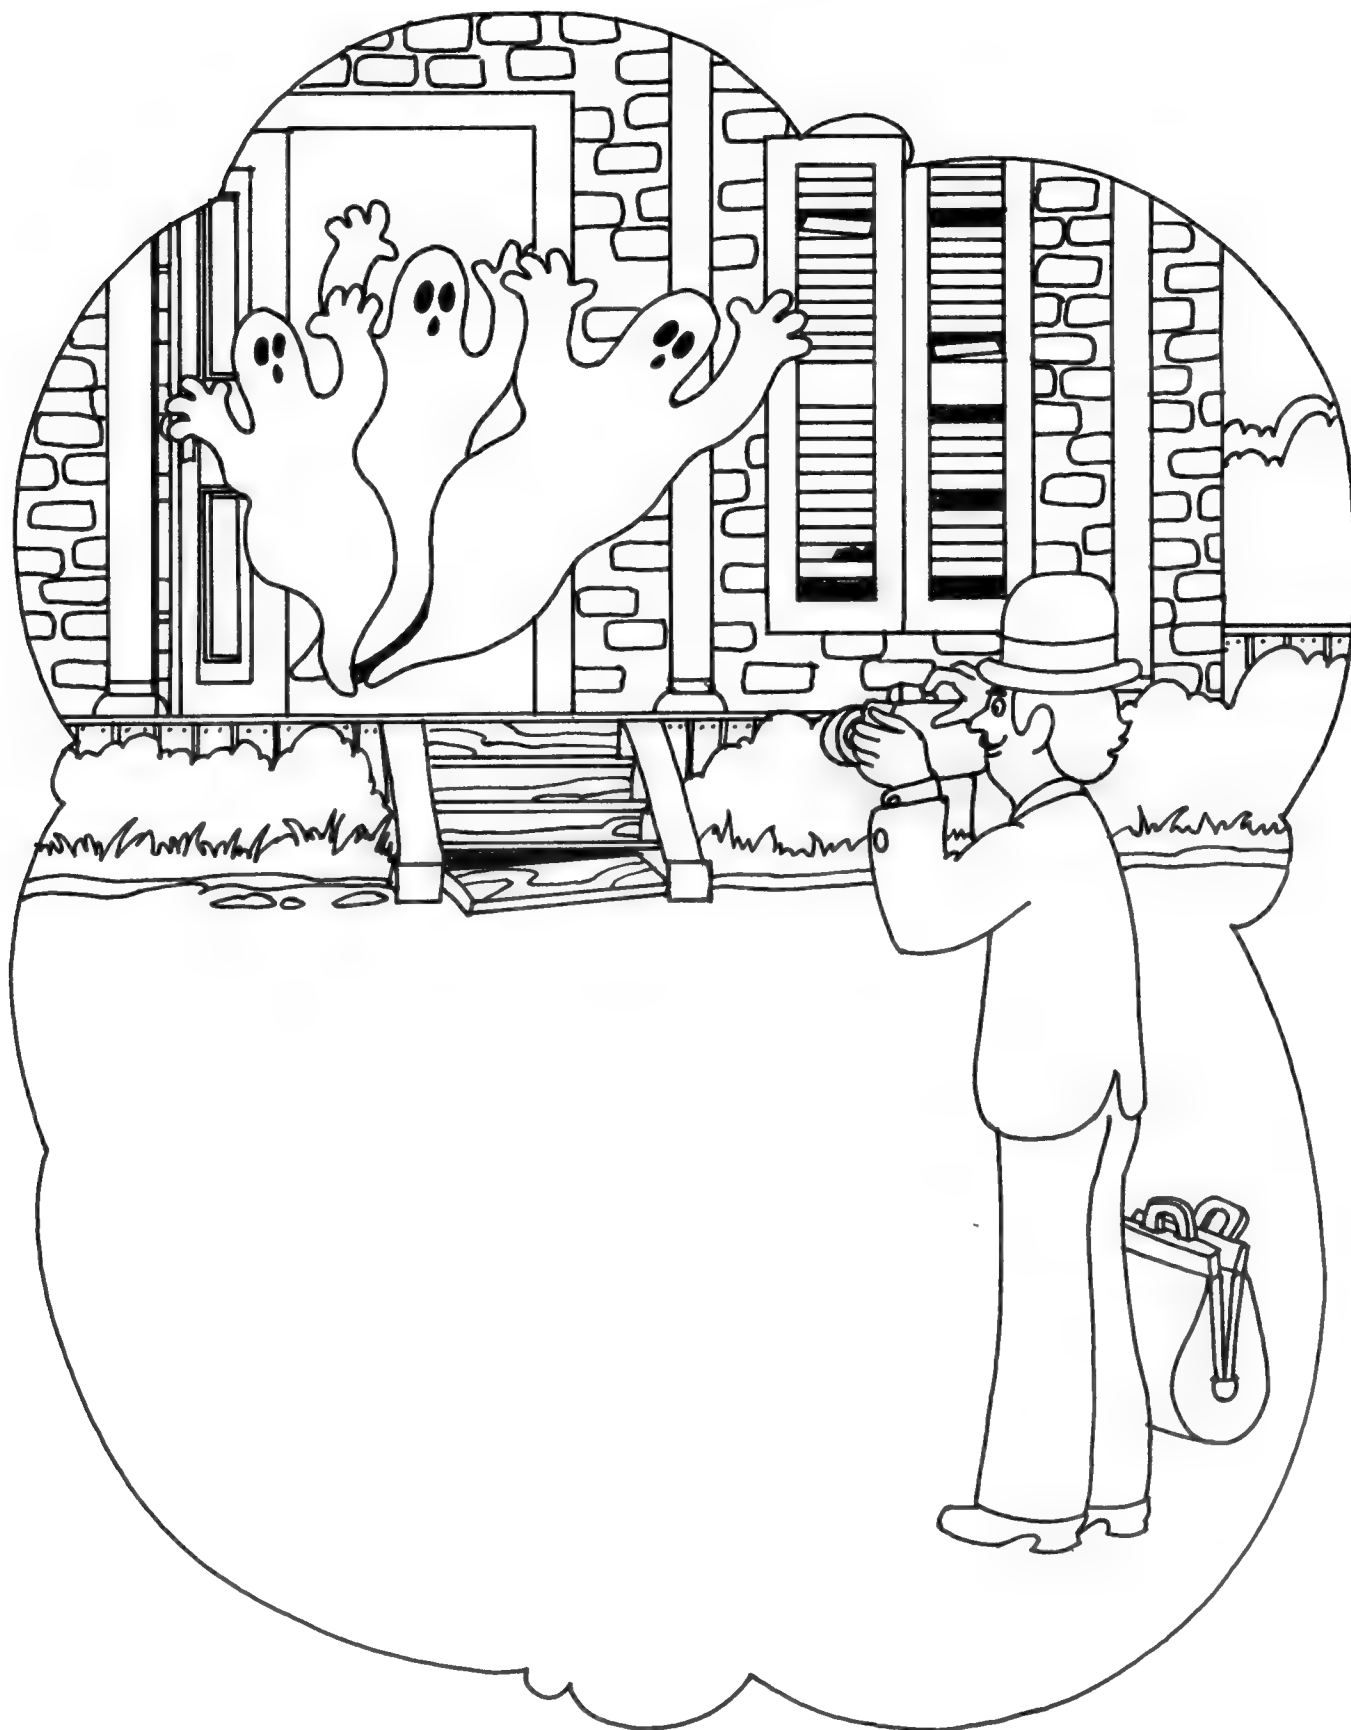

“Hurray!” said Benjamin, Chadwick and Maxwell.

“Tell your aunt to come back,” said Maxwell.

“We promise never to scare her again.”

“We will,” said Alex, “but first I want a picture of you ghosts for my records.”

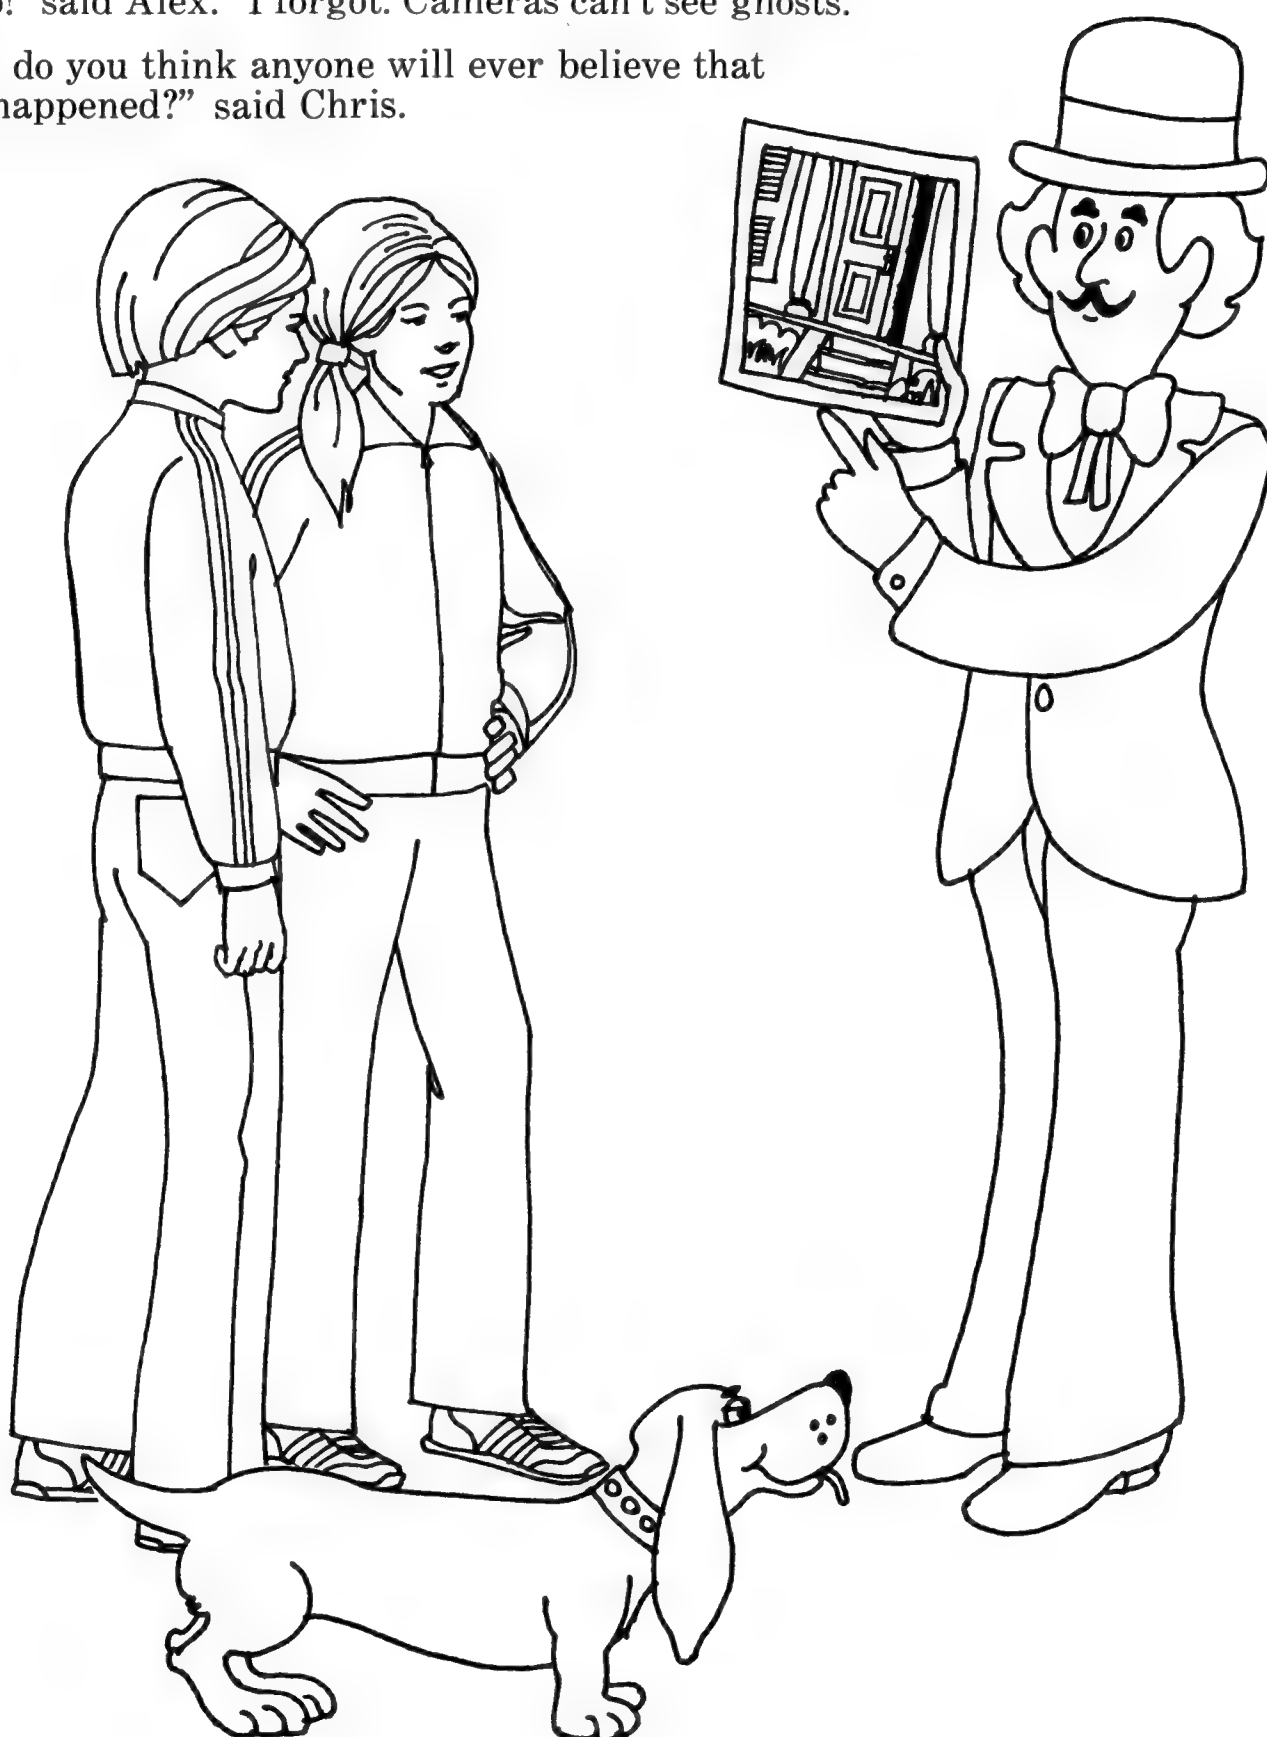

• Use your Colorubs to put Chris and Carrie in the picture. Then color it.

“Here’s the picture,” Alex said to the Kids.

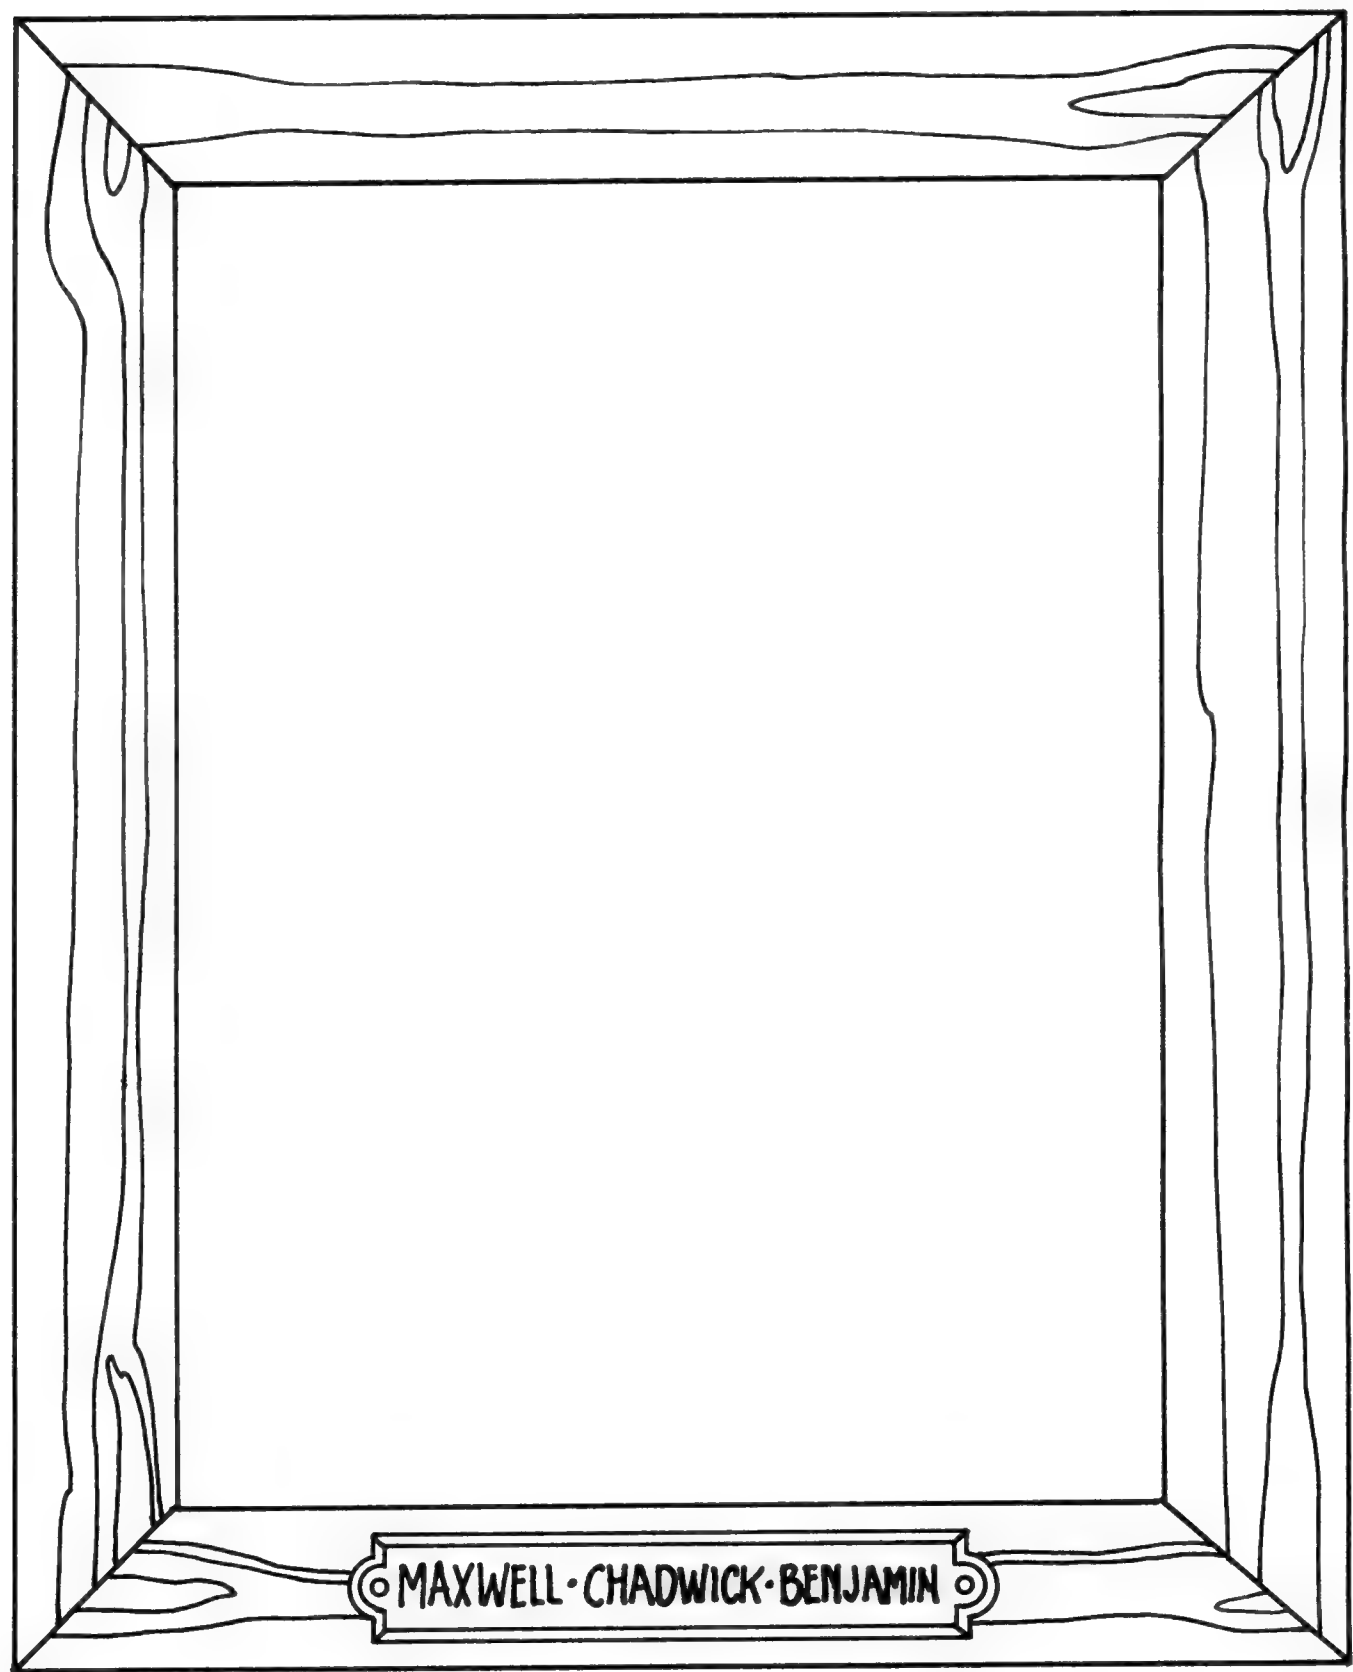

“But where are the ghosts?” asked Carrie.

“Oh no!” said Alex. “I forgot. Cameras can’t see ghosts.”

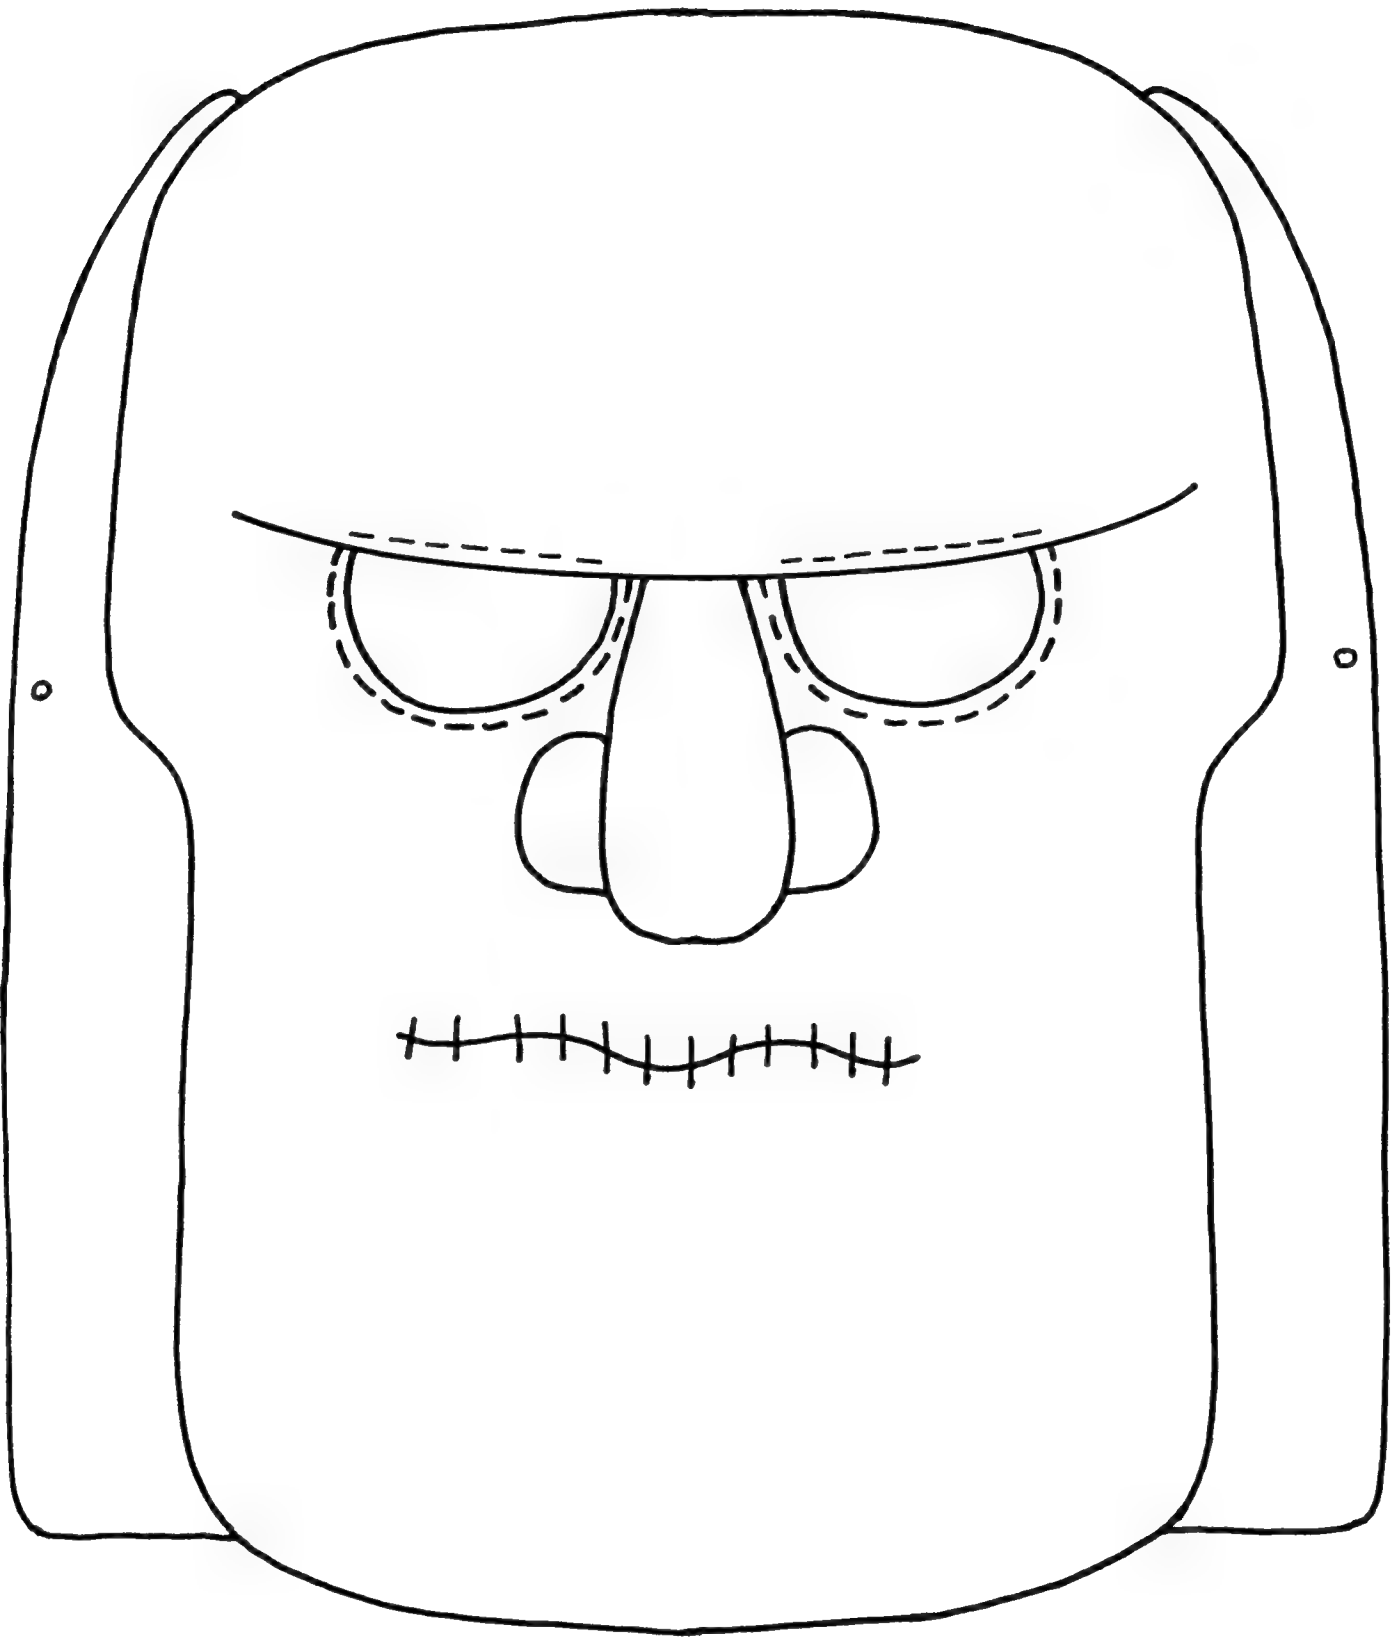

“Then do you think anyone will ever believe that this happened?” said Chris.

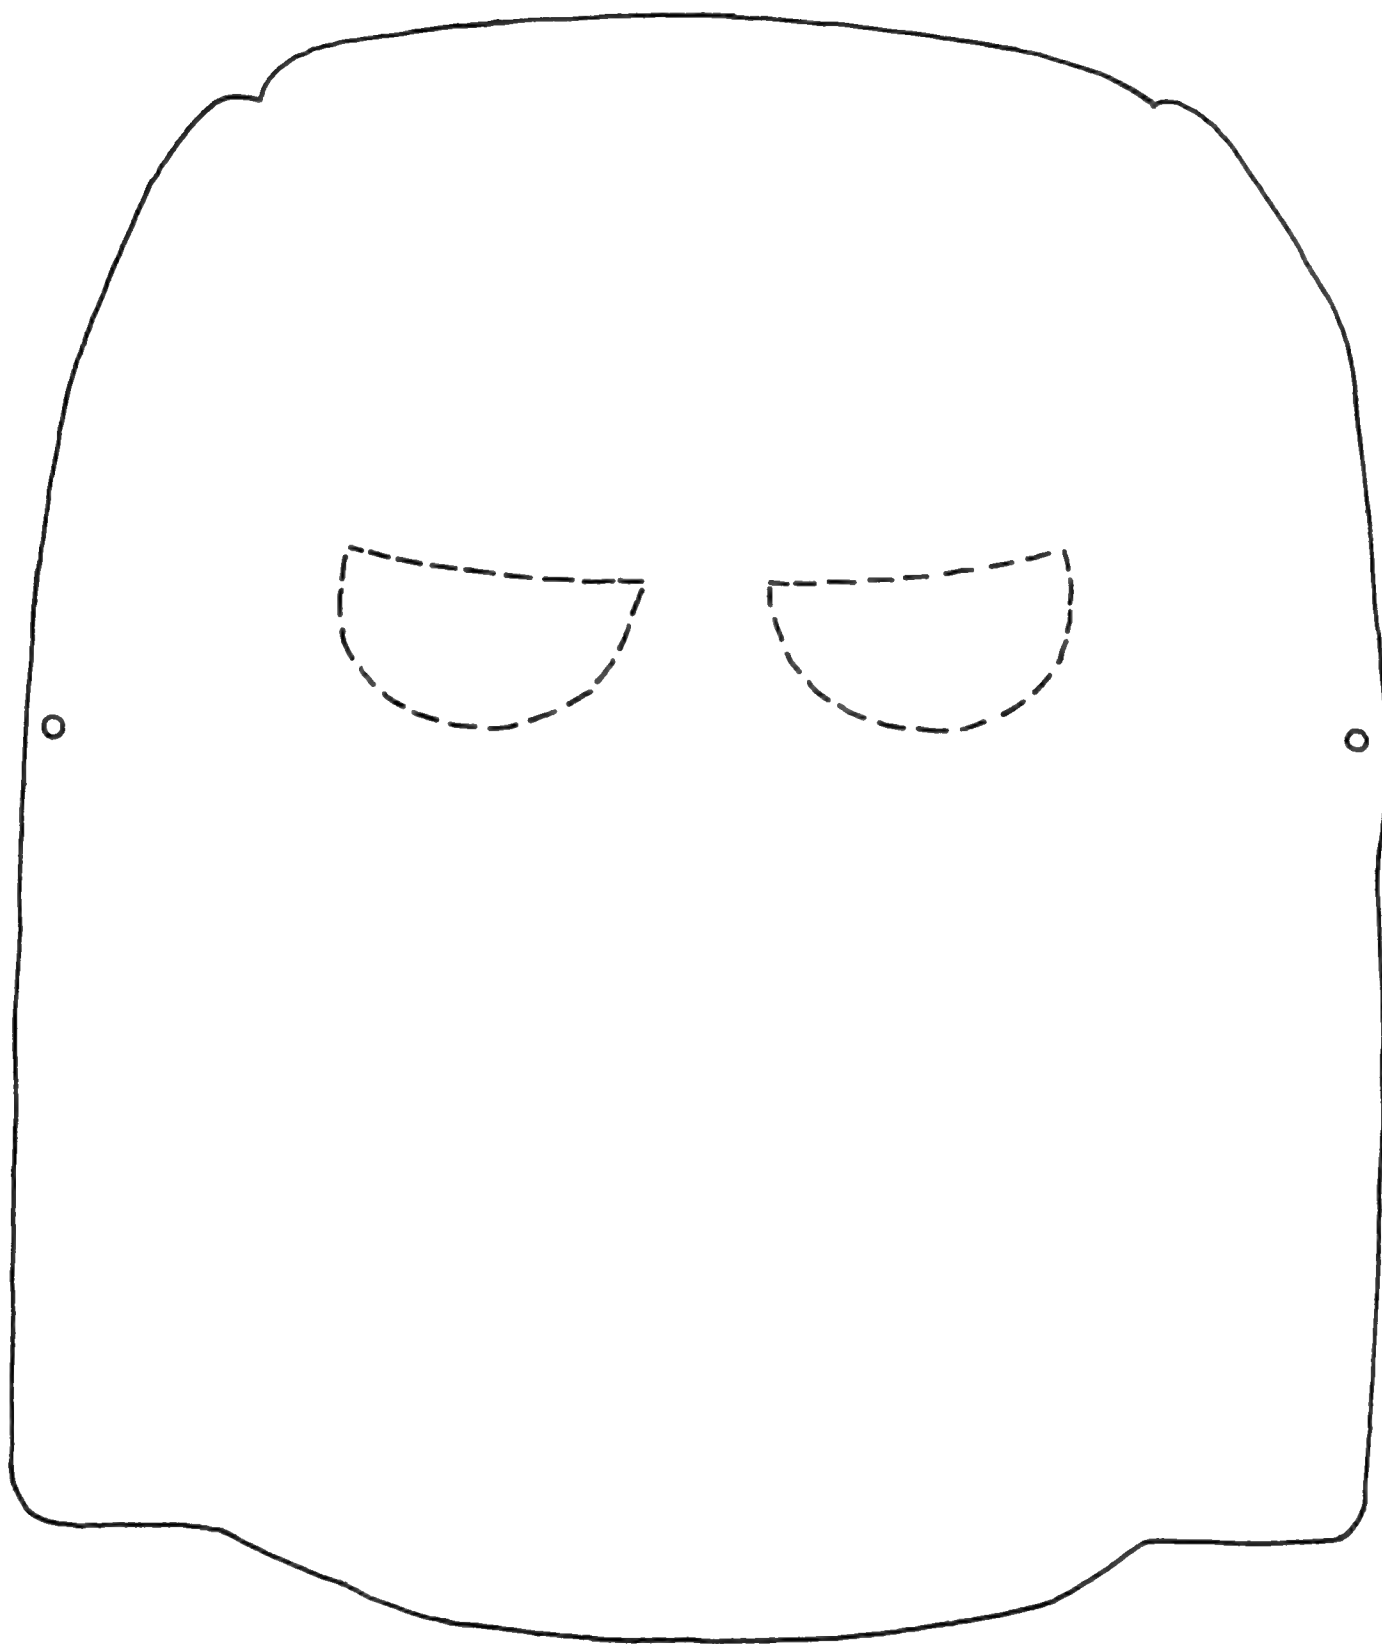

“If we don’t have a photo, I’ll just draw a picture of the ghosts,” said Chris when they were back at Susan’s.

- Can you help Chris draw a picture of the ghosts?

- Here is a mask to use if you ever have to scare ghosts.
Complete it with Colorubs. Then color it, cut it out and wear it.

- You can draw your own mask on this side. How scary can you make it?
